

Waiver of the Gift Rule

FILED

Agency or Office: Indiana Broadband Office (IBO)

AUG 26 2026

Name of Recipient: Megan Bailey (Minor)

INDIANA STATE
ETHICS COMMISSION

Title of Recipient: Chief Broadband Officer

Brief Description of Item Solicited, Accepted, or Received and approximate Value of item:

Flight and ground transportation (iao $740), hotel accommodation (iao $600) for attendance at the Tarana Connecting Communities Summit 2026 in Milpitas, California to be held on September 17, 2026.

Date of Receipt: Flight, ground transportation and hotel will be paid for by Tarana for travel to and from the September 17, 2026 summit.

Name of Donor: Tarana.

Donor's Address: 630 Alder Drive, Milpitas, CA 95035

Nature of Business Relationship with Agency: IBO does not assert it has a business relationship with Tarana and is filing this waiver out of an abundance of caution to avoid any appearance of impropriety.

State Why Acceptance is in Public Interest: Attendance at the summit will provide Indiana's Chief Broadband Officer valuable insight into best practices and partnership opportunities with other state broadband leaders, public and nonprofit leaders, public officials and other stakeholders at a critical time in the Broadband Equity, Access and Deployment (BEAD) Program (a federally funded program to deploy broadband in the US). The knowledge and connections gained at this workshop will help Indiana gain deeper knowledge on how to connect more communities to high-speed internet.
