Describe the conflict of interest:

I am a Special State Appointee who was appointed to serve as a commissioner on the Indiana Commission on Hispanic and Latino Affairs board.

I am also a Director at the Immigration Clinic at Lafayette Urban Ministry (LUM), a non-profit organization. ICHLA awards grant funding to non-profit organizations that address Hispanic and Latino community issues. LUM advocates for just laws in regards to workforce and civil rights. LUM's Immigration Clinic helps individuals from other countries, who are legally in the United States, navigate the Immigration and Naturalization Services. As a non-profit, LUM's funding sources include grant awards from organizations like ICHLA.

Describe the screen established by your ethics officer: (Attach additional pages as needed.)

Any LUM grant application to ICHLA, and possible voting and awarding, would be a conflict of interest for me and would require screening. In the event that LUM applies for any future grant from ICHLA, I will be prohibited from participating in any decisions or votes, or matters related to decisions or votes, in which I or LUM would have a financial interest. In the event I learn LUM will apply for an ICHLA grant, I will file a Conflicts of Interest - Contract Disclosure Statement prior to LUM applying for and ICHLA awarding any grant funds to LUM in order to fully comply with Ind. Code §4-2-6-10.5. Further I will work with the Indiana Civil Rights Commission's Ethics Officer and ICHLA's Director to ensure this established screen is followed.
