Describe the conflict of interest:

I serve as the President and Chief Executive Officer of Early Learning Indiana. Among other duties, Early Learning Indiana operates a network of early learning centers throughout Indiana that are regulated by the Family and Social Services Administration.

I intend to seek a position on the Early Learning Advisory Committee, an FSSA committee related to early learning. The Early Learning Advisory Committee may make recommendations from time to time that relate to the operation of all licensed early learning providers throughout Indiana. The Early Learning Advisory Committee recommendations do not take force and effect unless acted on by some other governing body.

From time to time, Early Learning Indiana is contracted to carry out various activities on behalf of the State of Indiana. The Early Learning Advisory Committee's recommendations could include such activities that result in contractual opportunities for providers. Early Learning Indiana cannot be engaged to carry out such activities without the direction and approval of some other governing body, such as the Family and Social Services Administration or the Indiana Department of Education.

Describe the screen established by your ethics officer: (Attach additional pages as needed.)
 FSSA will implement a screen that will prohibit Ms. Weber from participating in any vote, decision, or matter relating to any vote or decision in her role on the Early Learning Advisory Committee, involving or related to Early Learning Indiana specifically (and not all providers generally). Ms. Weber will be screened from any issues whereby Early Learning Indiana would have a financial interest separate from all other providers generally. Based on the work of the Early Learning Advisory Committee, it is unlikely that such an action would be taken specific to Early Learning Indiana, but out of an abundance of caution, Ms. Weber is filing this disclosure and this screen will be implemented should the situation arise.
