Describe the conflict of interest:
I am teaching a contracts course during the spring semester (January - May) in the paralegal studies program at Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI). As a public institution, it is possible the Office of Inspector General (OIG) or State Ethics Commission could receive a complaint or allegation of wrongdoing involving IUPUI, its employees, or its affiliates. As Chief Legal Counsel for the OIG, I currently review complaints and assist with legal action resulting from OIG investigations. As Interim Inspector General, I make decisions regarding the disposition of OIG investigations.

Describe the screen established by your ethics officer: (Attach additional pages as needed.)

If the OIG receives a complaint or allegation of wrongdoing involving IUPUI, its employees or its affiliates, I will not be involved with the screening or evaluation of the complaint. I also will have no involvement in any resulting investigations, and I will not be involved in any decisions regarding the disposition of the case. The attorney assigned to any case involving IUPUI will report directly to the State Ethics Director on the case. The State Ethics Director will make any final decisions regarding any complaint, investigation or case involving IUPUI, including any decisions involving final disposition of such a case.
