In accordance with IC 4-2-6-9, you must file your disclosure with the State Ethics Commission no later than seven (7) days after the conduct that gives rise to the conflict. You must also include a copy of the notification provided to your agency appointing authority and ethics officer when filing this disclosure. This disclosure will be posted on the Inspector General's website.

Describe the conflict of interest:
On June 14, 2018, the Indiana Economic Development Corporation ("IEDC") Board of Directors considered an application from Riverview FW, LLC ("Riverview") for the approval of Community Revitalization Enhancement District (CRED) tax credits to help finance its proposed mixed-use development project (the "Project") in Fort Wayne, Indiana. In addition to the CRED tax credits, Riverview indicated in its application that it would also be seeking conventional bank financing from one of a select number of pre-identified lenders, one which is Old National Bank ("ONB"). Prior to the meeting, Ms. White notified the IEDC's General Counsel & Ethics Officer that she serves on the ONB Board of Directors. Ms. White, by virtue of her board position, has a potential financial interest (as defined in Indiana Code section 4-2-6-1(a)(11)), in Riverview's application for CRED tax credits. Although it has not yet been determined whether ONB will be selected to provide financing for the Project, in the interest of transparency and out of an abundance of caution, the IEDC General Counsel & Ethics Officer identified this as a financial interest requiring an ethical screen and disclosure.

Describe the screen established by your ethics officer: (Attach additional pages as needed.)

As detailed in the Ethics Commission's Advisory Opinion 17-I-2, the IEDC has well-established ethical screening procedures. Ms. White's board position with ONB was logged into the IEDC's Customer Relationship Management (CRM) database, which is used to identify potential conflicts of interest. Ms. White was screened from any involvement in the Riverview matter. Ms. White has not and will not discuss the Riverview matter with the IEDC staff or members of the IEDC Board of Directors, other than to disclose her service on the ONB Board of Directors to the IEDC's Ethics Officer. When the IEDC Board of Directors conducted its public meeting on June 14, 2018, Ms. White recused herself from any discussion, decision, or vote related to the Riverview matter and was completely screened from the matter.
