

ORDER 2006-42
ORDER OF THE INDIANA GAMING COMMISSION
CONCERNING THE REVOCATION OF A TEMPORARY LICENSE
AND DENIAL OF THE APPLICATION FOR AN OCCUPATIONAL LICENSE
OF BRENDA WILSON

On or about September 21, 2005, Brenda Wilson was issued a level 2 temporary occupational license to work as a Casino Host at Caesars Indiana. Ms. Wilson failed to disclose several criminal arrests on her application for an occupational license. After learning of these omissions, but before having an opportunity to complete a full investigation, Commission staff placed her license on six (6) months' probation. As the investigation continued, staff learned that one of her arrests was a 1973 arrest and conviction in Orange County, California for forgery. Upon obtaining court records from this arrest and conviction, Commission staff discovered that this forgery conviction was a felony.

Pursuant to Indiana Code 4-33-8-3 and 68 IAC 2-3-5(a)(4), the Commission may not issue an occupational license to an individual who has been convicted of a felony under Indiana law, the laws of any state, or the laws of the United States. Moreover, under IC 4-33-8-7 and 68 IAC 2-3-5(b)(8), the Commission, through the Executive Director, may revoke the temporary occupational license of an applicant if it is determined that the individual is unsuitable to hold an occupational license.

Ms. Wilson has a felony arrest and conviction on her record. This offense renders her ineligible for an occupational license. On that basis, Commission staff revoked Ms. Wilson's temporary occupational license and denied her application for a permanent license. The Commission staff formally advised Ms. Wilson of this action with a letter sent Certified Mail on May 19, 2006.

After reviewing the foregoing, the Commission hereby:
