AN ORDER OF THE INDIANA GAMING COMMISSION
CONCERNING THE VOLUNTARY EXCLUSION PROGRAM
CASE NO. VEP-12-05

On or about September 27, 2008, John Doe #05 submitted an application to the Indiana Gaming Commission ("Commission") to participate in the Voluntary Exclusion Program for a minimum of one year. Pursuant to 68 IAC 6-3-2 (d), if a person does not request removal from the program after the expiration of the program term, he or she remains validly in the program. Pursuant to 68 IAC 6-3-2(g), a participant in the program agrees that if he or she violates the terms of the program and enters the gaming area of a facility under the jurisdiction of the Commission he or she willingly forfeits any money or thing of value obtained from or owed to the participant by a casino. The casino must withhold forfeited monies or things of value and remit them to the Commission, which collects the funds.

On or about December 22, 2011, John Doe #05 was discovered to be present at Casino Aztar ("Aztar"). At that time, John Doe #05 had obtained $56 in chips from Aztar. Aztar withheld the monies as required by Commission regulations. Commission staff seeks approval for remittance to the Commission of the winnings, less applicable taxes in fulfillment of John Doe #05's voluntary exclusion application.

The Commission, after reviewing this matter:

APPROVES

the remittance of $56, less applicable taxes, in fulfillment of John Doe #05's voluntary exclusion application.
