Additional reminders:

- The application period will be open up to and including September 30, 2019. Thereafter, if more than one (1) otherwise qualified bona fide civic organization has applied for a two-year license in a particular county, the Commission may hold a random drawing to determine which organization to award the license.
- Qualified civic organizations must submit the following forms to apply: Application for Annual Activity License (Form CG-AL), including Schedules A, B, & C, and a Qualification Application (Form CG-QA) if the organization has not received notice from the Indiana Gaming Commission in the preceding three years that it has been deemed to be a qualified organization.

- Please consult SEA 393 – Implementation Guidance for more information.
