

FELONY WAIVER APPLICATION

State Form 47670 (R/2-08)
INDIANA GAMING COMMISSION

FELONY WAIVER APPLICATION

I. PROCEDURE

If you have a felony conviction, you may be eligible for a waiver of the Indiana Gaming Commission's automatic disqualification from obtaining an occupational license.

First, you must complete the following steps:

- Apply for an occupational license.
- Receive a denial of the application for occupational license due to a felony conviction.
- Obtain a letter of support from the casino or supplier where you would work. The letter must, at least, indicate that the casino or supplier will employ you upon the issuance of a waiver.
- Complete the attached application in its entirety and submit it to the Commission.

Upon satisfaction of these steps, Commission staff will assign a review officer to your application. The review officer will determine whether you fit into one of the following categories:

- You are prohibited for life from obtaining a felony waiver under Indiana Code 4-33-8-11(d) or 4-35-6.5-11(d);
- You are prohibited for ten (10) years from the date of discharge of your sentence from obtaining a felony waiver under Indiana Code 4-33-8-11(e) or 4-35-6.5-11(e) and fewer than ten (10) years have elapsed since the discharge of your sentence; or
- You are prohibited for five (5) years from the date of discharge of your sentence from obtaining a felony waiver under Indiana Code 4-33-8-11(f) or 4-35-6.5-11(f) and fewer than five (5) years have elapsed since the discharge of your sentence.

If you are not disqualified for one of the above reasons, the review officer will schedule a hearing on your request. You will then receive instructions on the procedure for the hearing.

At the first Commission meeting following your hearing, the review officer will recommend Commission action on your request. The Commission will issue one of the following decisions:

- Approve the recommendation of the review officer as the Commission's final decision.
- Review the entire record and issue a new decision.
- Conduct its own review of your case.

You will be sent a copy of the Commission's decision. It is your responsibility to provide the Commission with your current address. If the decision is returned to the Commission due to an incorrect address, no further notice will be sent to you.

If your request is denied, you will receive instructions regarding your rights to appeal the denial.
