

ORDER 2018-99

AN ORDER CONCERNING THE DENIAL OF CAROL BURTON'S APPLICATION FOR PERMANENT OCCUPATIONAL LICENSE

The Indiana Gaming Commission ("Commission") has considered the following factors:

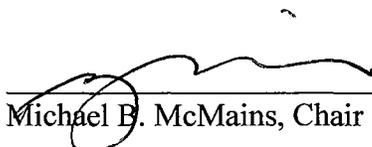

1. On or about February 20, 2018, Carol Burton ("Applicant") applied for a Level 3 occupational license to work as a Food and Beverage Shift Supervisor at Blue Chip Casino.
2. On March 19, 2018, Commission staff notified Applicant that the Commission was still in the process of investigating Applicant's file and that the issuance of a temporary license would be inappropriate at that time.
3. As a result of the background investigation, Commission staff determined that Applicant did not meet established standards for licensure and denied Applicant's temporary identification badge and temporary license on April 3, 2018.
4. On April 3, 2018, Commission staff notified Applicant that it had completed its investigation of Applicant's file, and pursuant to 68 IAC 2-3-5 and 68 IAC 2-3-12, the Commission would not be issuing Applicant a temporary license.
5. The decision to deny Applicant a temporary license was based on the circumstances surrounding the termination of Applicant's employment at a different Indiana casino. Applicant also failed to disclose information regarding her prior employment and termination on her Blue Chip application.
6. The Commission may not issue an occupational license to an individual unless the individual has met standards adopted by the Commission for holding an occupational license. Ind. Code § 4-33-8-3(4).
7. The Commission may refuse to issue an occupational license to an individual who does not disclose or states falsely any information required by the application. Ind. Code § 4-33-8-7(2).
8. The Commission may refuse to issue an occupational license to an individual who for just cause is considered by the Commission to be unfit to hold an occupational license. Ind. Code § 4-33-8-7(5).
9. Any misrepresentation or omission made with respect to an application may be grounds for denial of the application. 68 IAC 2-3-4(b)(2).
10. A person whose application for an occupational license has been denied may not reapply for an occupational license of the same or higher level for a period of one year from the date on which the Commission voted to deny the application without leave of the Commission. 68 IAC 2-3-7.

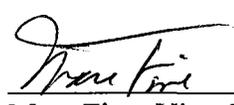

Having considered the foregoing, the Commission hereby DENIES Applicant's application for permanent licensure.

IT IS SO ORDERED THIS 28th DAY OF JUNE, 2018.
