Re: List of Approved Market Study Providers as of May 1, 2018

Effective May 1, 2018, the revised list of Approved Market Study Providers has been posted to the IHCDA website. This list includes all of the market analysts who have been certified by NCHMA and who have applied to IHCDA to be on the approved list. As of May 1, 2018, no market studies will be accepted from firms not on the approved list.

Applications to be added to the list will be accepted on an on-going basis, but will require that the applicant be certified by NCHMA. For details about the NCHMA certification, please see their website at www.housingonline.com
