Re: Update on the RHTC Online Application

Notice: RED-24-32

Due to the need for additional development and testing, IHEDA has decided to postpone the requirement to utilize the online application for the submission of tax credit applications. For the July funding rounds and the noncompetitive bond round, applicants should continue to use the Excel-based Form A.

IHEDA anticipates moving to the online application later this summer, beginning with noncompetitive bond applications. Additional instructions will be provided at that time.
