- Rapid re-housing funds can be used to assist individuals affected by COVID-19 b providing short-term rental assistance and services that assists them in obtaining housing quickly, increasing self- sufficiency, and staying housed.
- Shelter Operations funds can be used to support emergency shelters that are experiencing increased demand for their services during the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Street Outreach funds can be used to engage unsheltered people to connect individuals with emergency services and other services to mitigate the spread of COVID-19.
