

Hey Hoosiers, need broadband?

The program is now open!

The Indiana Connectivity Program aims to connect residents and businesses that lack access to broadband internet service with service providers and assist in the expense of extending broadband to those locations.

For help getting reliable internet connectivity at your household or business:

Call 833-639-8522 or visit in.gov/ocra/broadband

