Good Morning,

It appears that not everyone on the List Serv received yesterday's notification due to technical issues, therefore we are resending to everyone on the list. Thank you.

The Programmatic Categorical Exclusion (PCE), approved by the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) and the Indiana Department of Transportation (INDOT) has been used for minor projects since it's inception in 2009. The most current version of the PCE is from February 2, 2012 (http://www.in.gov/indot/files/ES_CE1forMinorProjects_2012.pdf)

To ensure the PCE is consistently applied, a new PCE applicability form will need to be completed when applying the PCE to a project, effective October 1, 2017. The applicability form will provide enough information for INDOT Districts to provide concurrence that the project type falls under a PCE. Please contact the appropriate INDOT District if you have any questions.

PCE applicability form guidance was developed to assist the document preparer with filling out the form.

Both the applicability form and the PCE guidance document is available on the INDOT Environmental Services Division, Environmental Policy webpage at <http://www.in.gov/indot/2523.htm>

Thank you.
