

INDIANA DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Dan Brassard Chief Financial Officer

Dan Brassard was appointed Chief Financial Officer in December 2009 and is responsible for all Finance and Management Information Systems matters. Dan also oversees INDOT's financial relationships with contractors, consultants and partners, including the financial administration of the agency's capital program for transportation. Dan and his team develop and implement financial management and cost-saving strategies across INDOT.

Dan's accomplishments as a senior finance executive in the private sector included the integration of several business acquisitions and the design and implementation of multiple process-driven solutions in both Finance and Operations. He also greatly improved efficiencies and profitability through the delivery of enhanced and automated performance management information.

Dan earned a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting and a Master of Business Administration degree in accounting, both from the University of Evansville.

Dan and his wife, Mary, live in Avon. In his spare time, he enjoys running, golfing and spending time with his family.

September 2014