

INDIANA DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Mitchell Ginder

Deputy Commissioner of Strategic Mobility Solutions

Mitchell Ginder was named INDOT Deputy Commissioner in March 2026. As Deputy Commissioner of Strategic Mobility Solutions, Mitchell will help guide the agency's exploration of revenue options for the future of our interstates and infrastructure.

Mitchell joined INDOT in 2019 as a General Ledger Accountant and has held several roles of increasing responsibility within the agency's Finance Division. In his most recent role as INDOT's Controller, Mitchell oversaw financial reporting, accounting, and audit functions. Prior to joining INDOT, Mitchell spent 11 years working for The Kroger Co., where he held various management and administrative positions.

Mitchell holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting and Finance from the Indiana University Kelley School of Business.

Mitchell lives in Fishers with his wife, Courtney, who works in marketing for a nonprofit. Mitchell and Courtney have two children, Charlotte and Teddy.

In his free time, Mitchell enjoys gardening, golfing, and beekeeping.
