PROPELLEING US FORWARD

The Indiana Public Retirement System’s (INPRS) 2022 - 2024 Strategic Plan reflects the commitment to helping our members realize and secure their retirement dreams. The plan results from a collaborative process between our board of trustees and the INPRS executive team. The priority of this collaboration is to determine how best to serve the everchanging and growing INPRS community at large. Their unbridled eagerness and passion to contribute energy and ideas inspire and empower our team to deliver exceptional services for our participating members, employers, and retirees.

Each year, our leadership team engages in an established process to evaluate and build a thoughtful and relevant plan for the future of our organization and the members and employers we serve. The planning process begins with assessing the major risks and opportunities facing INPRS. The process also identifies our many internal strengths. Additionally, we solicit valuable information and feedback from internal and external stakeholders to help us develop this plan.

The INPRS team continues to deliver top-tier service levels year over year as measured and reported by CEM Benchmarking Inc. This independent research firm ranks pension plan performance in various service and cost categories. INPRS achieved a service score of 95/100, which places us as the top pension plan in our peer group.

Upholding our commitment to our stakeholders, even in times of crisis, INPRS leadership and staff have proven agility and responsiveness during the recent Coronavirus pandemic. This dedication continues as we adapt our operation and services as we emerge from the pandemic. While the pandemic and its impacts are far from over, INPRS now has a year’s worth of insights guiding new workplace strategies to improve business outcomes.

INPRS VISION

Engaged members able to realize their retirement dreams

The INPRS Vision is a forward-looking statement, creating a mental image of the ideal state we wish for our members. It is inspirational and aspirational and will lead the INPRS team to greater levels of service.

Our INPRS Vision maintains an organizational emphasis on member engagement and education. We do this while continuing our focus on being trusted to pay member benefits and fostering strong employer relationships. Our goal is to create a positive retirement experience for our members.
INPRS MISSION

As fiduciaries, educate stakeholders, collect necessary contributions, and prudently manage member assets to deliver promised DB and DC benefits and services.

In support of our Vision Statement, our Mission Statement reflects a concise explanation of the INPRS’s reason for existence, one which describes our purpose and overall intention in our role as a fiduciary. Additionally, our mission statement serves to communicate our purpose and direction to employees, members, employers, and other stakeholders.

In previous years, our Strategic Plan also included a set of Principles by which we made strategic decisions and completed our operational tasks. This year, the INPRS’ executive staff decided to focus on our internal culture to develop critical core values for intentional culture transformation.

The INPRS Values Statement reflects the organization’s beliefs about our staff, how we accomplish our work, and how we deliver services to our members and employers.

WHAT IS INPRS?

INPRS is a politically-independent, governmental, financial institution accountable to our members and citizens.

ENTERPRISE RISK MANAGEMENT

Enterprise risk management and sustainability continue to be important filters which we apply to check all of our strategies. Whether discussing cybersecurity, succession planning or evaluation of future trends, these filters guide our approach. They provide a primary perspective that links the nine strategic goals and are woven through the objectives and underlying initiatives in the business plan.

INPRS STRATEGY MAP

The INPRS Strategy Map is a pictorial representation of Strategic Goals outlined to achieve the INPRS vision and mission.
MEMBER SERVICES

As in many areas of the INPRS organization, the Retirement Financial Education team faced the challenge of meeting rapidly evolving customer needs in a period of great stress. While the team had offered online services such as workshops and counseling for many years, member interest in anything but face-to-face assistance was minimal. However, with the advent of COVID-19, the team rapidly transitioned to offering all services remotely, none face-to-face.

To forecast the demand for services, INPRS’ Voice of the Customer team reached out to retirement-eligible members to determine if the COVID-19 pandemic and resulting economic crisis impacted their retirement plans. Approximately 23% of those surveyed indicated they had changed their retirement plans. About 17% of that number indicated they had delayed their retirement.

However, the potential delays in retirements did not slow the demand for education. The fiscal year 2020 finished ahead of FY 2019 in terms of members served through education programs and counseling. In FY 2021, the number of members served was greater than FY 2019 and similar to FY 2020. Through FY 2021, monthly satisfaction with retirement counseling appointments averaged 99.3%. Satisfaction with group webinars averaged 89%, reflecting challenges some members experienced in mastering webinar technology.

The spread of COVID-19 resulted in a significant market downturn in the early days of the pandemic. Anticipating the concern this would have among active and retired members, INPRS launched an ongoing crisis communication response. This effort increased the frequency of communication, providing essential facts regarding the health of the pension system and INPRS’ response to serving members in a new fashion. The communication results included improved member perception of the relevance communication received, with a survey rating that exceeded other peer pension systems.

Our 2022-2024 Strategic Plan reflects a continued focus on improving our engagement and overall service to our members through effective communication channels, educational opportunities, and collaborative relationships.

ASSET MANAGEMENT

The INPRS investment team is responsible for the prudent investment and management of approximately $42.0 billion in assets across the defined benefit (DB) and defined contribution (DC) plans.

The Chief Investment Officer (CIO) and the DB investment consultant presented an asset allocation and target rate of return recommendation to the Board of Trustees. They ultimately approved both recommendations in Q4 of FY2021. The new asset allocation will be implemented in two phases: Public asset classes in the first year and private assets over the next five years.

This year’s strategic plan builds upon investment research completed last year related to custom managed risk parity strategies, merits of direct real estate investing, and a recommendation for custodian services to INPRS’s financial assets. New and relevant investment topics such as the role of cryptocurrencies in an institutional portfolio, alpha generation in public markets, and active risk management within the DC plan will be areas of focus this year.

CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT

INPRS strives to promote a culture of continuous improvement. Our employees engage throughout the organization in projects that identify opportunities to reduce complexities and risks in our processes and procedures, decrease costs, improve overall service and experience for our members and employers, and increase employee engagement and productivity.

INPRS had many accomplishments in FY2021 in support of these improvement and efficiency goals. One strategic priority focused on improving our long-term hiring practices for our Call Center Advocates. This priority focuses on maintaining appropriate staffing levels, retaining institutional knowledge, emulating our culture and values, and providing maximum user experience with our most skilled staff. Creating a positive experience for our members and employers is paramount. Therefore, these areas require an ongoing evaluation of service and satisfaction.

Today, we deliver various compartmentalized services to our members and employers to help them navigate through their retirement plan and plan administration, respectively. Our overall satisfaction results have been positive and can be dated a decade back. INPRS continues to look at service and educational delivery models and the ever-evolving demands of our stakeholders. This includes a strategic journey to create cohesive, all-encompassing service environments for both our members and employers. Our efforts are to provide, in part, a full range of service options, including improved plan enrollment features, education, real-time and actionable information, consistent messaging across all medium platforms, and the use of data-driven analytics to anticipate, if not predict, a stakeholder need.

WORKPLACE CULTURE

In FY2021 and the year ahead, we continue building a strong workplace culture of beliefs and workplace norms. Our Values Statement guides our team actions, priorities, and decisions. INPRS recognizes that a positive workplace culture drives engagement, employee satisfaction, performance, and our ability to attract and retain top-tier talent.

A high-performing organization is predicated on the ability to include and connect every team member’s shared talents and perspectives. That is why cultivating a culture where everyone can contribute their full potential will enable us to deliver on the goals and objectives of this strategic plan. INPRS is committed to developing a skilled and diverse workforce by providing staff with resources and development opportunities necessary to grow professionally and to service our members, employers, and stakeholders.
DATA ASSET MANAGEMENT

INPRS continues to improve across several technology-based areas. Over the past several years, the organization has built a program to manage our data as an asset, not just something used to perform a process. We now have established and staffed a team that focuses on managing our information effectively. We do this by working cross-functionally to analyze our data and perform data improvement activities.

For a decade, INPRS has been a strong leader amongst our peers in identifying and leveraging technology to innovate for our stakeholders. This year INPRS implemented several solutions that improve our ability to monitor activities within our systems. This improved responsiveness to business needs and provided better visibility into security across our environments. Proactively evaluating potential risks and developing risk mitigation strategies allow us to protect the data of members and employers, which is paramount to us.

The INPRS FY2022 – 2024 strategic plan reflects our commitment to providing high-quality, low-cost service and securing the financial future of the members we serve. The goals and objectives outlined by this plan, the strengths of our financial stability, our fiduciary governance, and our talented staff give us confidence that we will continue to accomplish the mission of this organization. To conclude, in FY 2022, we eagerly build upon the lessons learned and embrace the boundless opportunities for growth and many future successes in fostering relationships and servicing our members.
