

Deputy Prosecutor

The Boone County Prosecutor's Office is currently offering an exciting opportunity for individuals interested in public service and criminal law. We are seeking a full-time Deputy Prosecutor to join our team.

The Deputy Prosecutor will be responsible for representing the State of Indiana in criminal proceedings involving offenses ranging from misdemeanors through Level 6 felonies. Duties include reviewing criminal investigations, making charging decisions, appearing in court for hearings, bench trials, jury trials, and sentencing proceedings, negotiating plea agreements, preparing legal motions and briefs, working closely with law enforcement agencies, and maintaining communication with victims and witnesses throughout the judicial process.

The ideal candidate will possess strong legal research, writing, courtroom advocacy, and communication skills. Candidates must be licensed to practice law in Indiana or eligible for admission. While prior prosecutorial experience is preferred, motivated attorneys with a strong interest in criminal law and public service are encouraged to apply.

The Boone County Prosecutor's Office is committed to excellence, integrity, and public service. This is an excellent opportunity for an attorney seeking a rewarding career in criminal prosecution and a meaningful role in serving a growing and vibrant community.

Base Salary Range: $99,671 to $111,853, depending on experience.

Additional Compensation: Available for attorneys who participate in the office's on-call rotation and related after-hours responsibilities.

Work Schedule: Full-time salaried position with a standard 35-hour work week.

Benefits: Generous paid time off (PTO) and an excellent Boone County employee benefits package.

Interested applicants should submit a resume, cover letter, and references for consideration to <https://www.governmentjobs.com/careers/boonecountyin>

The Boone County Prosecutor's Office is an Equal Opportunity Employer.