

2008 Indiana Farmers' Market, U-Pick and Agritourism Directory

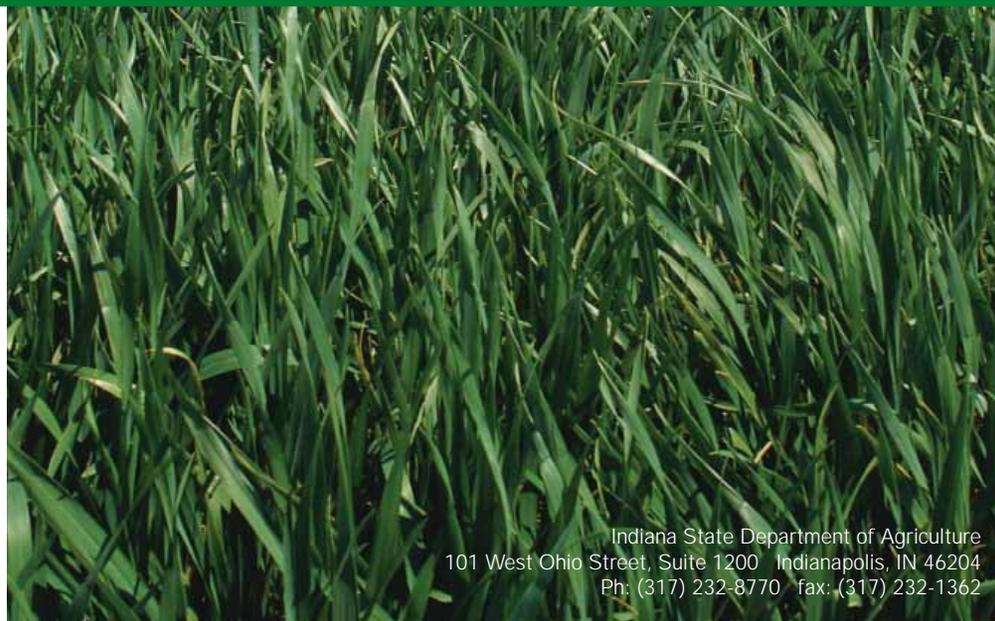

ISDA hopes that you enjoy exploring Indiana's farm community and seeing first hand why agriculture is a time tested cornerstone of our Hoosier economy.

ISDA is proud to be an advocate for agricultural economic development, conservation and policy. Our vision is simple: Indiana will be a global center for food and agriculture innovation and commercialization.

Welcome to Indiana!

We hope this directory will be a valuable resource to visitors and Hoosiers as you explore Indiana's rich agricultural heritage! Within these pages, you will find that there is something for everyone in Indiana.

Experience life on a family farm, taste wine from locally-grown grapes, marvel at acres of fresh Indiana corn, enjoy the bounty of Indiana's fresh fruits and vegetables and see the innovations of today's modern agriculture.

Show your children live cows, ducks or pigs. Let them pick a berry right off the bush in the summer or pumpkins off the vine in the fall. Teach them where their food really comes from—before it is picked, processed and distributed to a grocery store. Celebrate fall with a wagon ride or a walk through a corn maze, or discover the treasure troves of hand-crafted gifts in many of the farm gift shops. Start a family tradition and return to the farm in the winter and chop down your own Christmas tree.

Throughout the year you'll find fresh, locally-grown produce, meats and a range of other Indiana food products from honey to elk meat to goat cheese at the state's farmers' markets. Indiana agriculture truly has much to offer!

We are glad you want to discover and explore all the flavors and experiences that Indiana agriculture makes available. Our Indiana producers look forward to extending our famous Hoosier hospitality!

Sincerely,

Mitch Daniels
Governor

Traders Point Creamery is a family-owned artisan dairy located in Zionsville, Ind. We started making dairy products, selling direct to customers, and delivering in the central Indiana region in the summer of 2003. Traders Point herd of Brown Swiss spend all of their time on pastures and we milk 60 to 90 cows each day throughout the year. We also purchase milk from a sister farm in southern Indiana. Both farms are certified organic by the USDA. We never use synthetic fertilizers, pesticides, or herbicides on our land and our cows never receive antibiotics or synthetic hormones. We produce pure fresh creamline whole milk, chocolate milk, plain and fruit yogurts.

Since 1983, the Butler Winery has strived to produce high quality, award winning and enjoyable wines. Jim Butler, owner and winemaker, specializes in 12 fine dinner wines, all from Indiana-grown grapes. The winery also produces specialty fruit and dessert wines. In 1992, Jim established a vineyard at his family's home located nine miles northeast of Bloomington. Wine-making now occurs in the cellar at the vineyard/winery. During your visit to the vineyard, enjoy the beautiful view from the spacious deck adjacent to the the vineyard tasting and sales room. Cellar and vineyard tours are available upon request if the staff is not too busy. Gourmet items/food and banquet facilities are also available. Handicap accessible.

The HomeGrown Farmers' Market is a project of Orange County HomeGrown, an all-volunteer, non-profit, tax-exempt, community-service organization. The purpose of the Orange County HomeGrown Farmers' Market is to provide income for our local growers, fresh and local food and crafts for our customers, and a gathering place to help nurture a sense of community. The Market features produce, art, crafts and baked goods grown, created, made and/or baked solely by the vendors. We also have family fun events each Sat. during the season. One of the key principles of our farmers' market is that the consumers have a direct relationship with the producer. To register to sell, vendors must reside in Orange or adjacent counties: Davies, Washington, Crawford, Lawrence, or Martin. All products sold at the Orange County HomeGrown Markets must be grown or produced by the vendor.

Emphasis on "eco-logically" raised vegetables, flowers and herbs free of synthetic inputs. We also breed or select plants for higher nutrition and free amino acids. We are a very bio-diverse farm, raising small crops of almost every table vegetable in sustainable agriculture environments. We also produce our own farm fertilizers and are independent plant breeders, developing new varieties for organic agriculture, nutrition, taste and disease and pest tolerance.

A farm of a different color. In 1996 we cleared 4.5 acres and started to work on our vineyard. In the spring of 1997 we put our first vines in the ground, followed by an additional planting in the spring of 1998 and 1999. With a labor of love and help from above we had our first full harvest in the fall of 2000. We started out as a small vineyard that only grew grapes for local wineries but as the vineyard grew so did we. We now only grow grapes for wine that we produce and bottle here at Vinetree Farm. Vinetree Farm is an estate winery, meaning we grow all of the fruit for our wines on-site at the farm. Outdoor seating available. Handicap accessible.

Wine Trails

Wine trails are made up of several wineries, generally from one region, working together to offer customers the local wine experience. Customers can travel from winery to winery to learn about the various wines produced in the state.

For those traveling the trails, the participating wineries will offer suggestions for overnight accommodations and meals. Since the trails include visits to several wineries, everyone is encouraged to designate a driver and drink responsibly.

Indiana Uplands Trail

Elevate your senses while exploring the Indiana Uplands Wine Trail! Nestled among the rolling hills of Southern Indiana, the Uplands Wine Trail showcases eight wineries: Brown County Winery; Butler Winery & Vineyard; Carousel Winery; French Lick Winery; Huber Orchard, Winery & Vineyards; Oliver Winery; Turtle Run Winery and Winzerwald Winery.

Indiana Wine Trail

What do rolling hills, river towns, antique and specialty shops, state parks, historic sites, bed and breakfasts, galleries and cafés have in common? You'll find them all along the Indiana Wine Trail in Southeast Indiana! This trail showcases six wineries: Ertel Cellars Winery; Lanthier Winery; Madison Vineyards Estate Winery - Bed and Breakfast; Stream Cliff Farm; The Ridge Winery and Thomas Family Winery.

Indy Wine Trail

Visit seven award-winning wineries all within minutes of downtown Indianapolis! The Indy Wine Trail is an organization of seven area wineries: Buck Creek Winery; Chateau Thomas Winery; Easley Winery; Ferrin's Fruit Winery; Grape Inspirations Winery; Mallow Run Winery and Simmons Winery and Nortonburg Wine Garden Facility. Pick up a Trail Passport at any trail winery. Visit all seven wineries and receive a free gift, compliments of the Indy Wine Trail.
