

Changing Habits: Adapting Opioid Prescribing Guidelines in Various Healthcare Settings

AGENDA*

Indianapolis

Wednesday, May 16, 2018

Noon to 12:30 pm	Lunch served in Rice Auditorium
12:30 pm to 12:35 pm	Welcome from the State Health Commissioner Dr. Kristina Box, MD, FACOG Indiana State Department of Health
12:35 pm to 1:30 pm	Treating acute pain in hospital settings Dr. Don Teater, MD, MPH, Teater Health Solutions
1:30 pm to 2:00 pm	Overview of Indiana rule and CDC guidelines for chronic pain management prescribing Dr. Amy Lahood, MD, St Vincent Hospital
2:00 pm to 2:30 pm	Opioid prescribing in a rural primary care clinic Dr. Steven G. Waltz, MD, Valley Professionals Community Health Center
2:30 pm to 3:00 pm	Teaching opioid prescribing to pharmacy and medical students Darin Ramsey, Pharm. D., BCPS, BCACP, Butler University College of Pharmacy & Health Sciences
3:00 pm to 3:30 pm	Understanding treatment options of opioid use disorder Dr. Don Teater, MD, MPH, Teater Health Solutions
3:30 pm to 3:45 pm	Closing

*This agenda is subject to change.

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Indiana State Medical Association (ISMA) through the joint providership of Elkhart General Hospital and Indiana State Department of Health. The Elkhart General Hospital is accredited by the ISMA to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The Elkhart General Hospital designates each activity for the number of AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™ listed below. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Activity 1 Changing Habits: Adapting Opioid Prescribing Guidelines in Various Healthcare Settings
Live activity, 3.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™

Activity 2 Changing Habits: Adapting Opioid Prescribing Guidelines in Various Healthcare Settings
Internet Live course, 3.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™