CONTRACT FOR RECEIPT AND USE OF GRANT FUNDS

PURPOSE.

The purpose of this grant is to promote and enhance the competency of Indiana licensed attorneys by insuring the availability of high quality continuing legal education programs that will satisfy the educational requirements for newly admitted attorneys at little or no cost to the newly admitted attorneys.

PARTIES.

This contract is between the Commission for Continuing Legal Education ("Commission"), an agency of the Supreme Court of Indiana and ("Grantee"). This contract deals with the grant of funds from the Commission to sponsor a continuing legal education program for the benefit of newly licensed Indiana attorneys.

DEFINITIONS.

"Grant Program" shall mean an activity or series of activities accredited by the Commission as appropriate for the continuing legal education of newly admitted Indiana Attorneys pursuant to Admission and Discipline Rule 29, section 3(b), and for which the Grantee has been awarded a grant by the Commission.

"Grant" shall mean funds paid by the Commission and received by the Grantee for the purpose of presenting a Grant Program.

"Grantee" shall mean a provider located in Indiana who has agreed to present a Commission accredited activity or series of activities using grant funds set aside by the Commission for that purpose.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE CONTRACT.

The parties enter into this Contract for the Receipt and Use of Grant Funds upon the following terms and conditions:

1. Duties of the Grantee.

The Grantee shall provide a quality educational program that meets the requirements of Indiana Admission and Discipline Rule 29 and the "Standards for CLE Programs for Newly Admitted Indiana Attorneys." (Attached). The activity shall be targeted and directed to Indiana attorneys newly admitted in Indiana. The activity must not be for the exclusive benefit of members of one law firm or client. The Grantee agrees to provide competent written materials to the attendees of this program and to monitor attendance at the program. The Grantee further agrees to certify attendance in writing to the Commission within thirty (30) days after the program is completed.

This Grant Program shall not be used to raise funds for the benefit of the Grantee. The Grantee shall not charge for attendance at a Grant Educational Program except to offset the reasonable and direct costs of the Program not satisfied by this grant. This Grant shall not be used directly or indirectly to purchase alcoholic beverages.

This Grant may not be used for expenses not directly related to the Grant Program of the Grantee.

Grant funds may be used for the following: (this list is non-exclusive)

- a. Expenses of renting a facility.
- b. Speaker-related expenses.
- c. Expenses related to the production or reproduction of course materials.
- d. Expenses of advertising the activity.

2. Consideration.

The Grantee will receive a total dollar amount of $ _____, payable to _____ (Grantee). This amount shall not exceed $50 per student unless the parties expressly agree, based on a request submitted by the Grantee and approved by the Commission. Payment shall be on a reimbursement basis unless otherwise agreed by the Commission.

3. Term.

The term of this contract shall be for a period commencing from the date the contract is signed until _____. Unspent funds as of that date or funds in excess of $50 per student shall be returned to the Indiana Supreme Court Continuing Legal Education Fund.

4. Independent Contractor.

A. The parties, in the performance of this contract will be acting in an individual capacity and not as agents, employees, partners, joint ventures or associates of one another. The employees or agents of one party shall not be deemed or construed to be the employees or agents of the other party for any purposes whatsoever. Neither party will assume any liability for injury (including death) to any persons, or any damage to property arising out of the acts or omissions of the agents, employees or subcontractors of the other party.

B. The Grantee shall be responsible for providing all necessary unemployment and workmen's compensation insurance for the Grantee's employees, if any.

C. The parties agree that because the Grantee is an independent contractor, the Commission is not required to withhold from funds paid to Grantee any federal income taxes, social security taxes, Indiana income taxes or to secure worker's compensation or unemployment insurance of any kind.

5. Access to Records and Grant Educational Program Information.

Full, immediate and unrestricted access to information regarding the Grant Program shall be available to the Commission. The Grantee shall maintain all books, documents, papers, accounting records, and other evidence sufficient to document the request for and use of the Grant funds. These materials shall be available for three years from payment under this contract. Upon request, copies of such materials shall be furnished at no cost to the Commission. Within 30 days following the expiration of this Contract, the Grantee shall provide the Commission with a report explaining the expenditures.

6. Key Person.

A. The Grantee agrees that the services to be provided pursuant to this contract are uniquely within the Grantee's ability and, therefore, that the Grantee is the key person to this contract. Substitution of another for the Grantee shall not be permitted without express written permission from the Commission.

B. Nothing in section A above shall be construed to prevent the Grantee from using the services of others to perform tasks ancillary to those tasks which directly require the expertise of the Grantee. Examples of such ancillary tasks include (but are not limited to) secretarial, clerical and common labor duties. The Grantee shall at all time remain responsible for the performance of all necessary and ancillary tasks.

7. Force Majeure: Suspension and Termination.

In the event that either party is unable to perform any of its obligations under this contract or to enjoy any of its benefits because of (or if failure to perform the services is caused by) natural disaster, actions or decrees of governmental bodies or communication line failure not the fault of the affected party (referred to as a "Force Majeure Event"), the party who has been so affected shall immediately give notice to the other party and shall do everything possible to resume performance. Upon receipt of such notice, all obligations under this contract shall be immediately suspended. If the period of nonperformance exceeds thirty (30) days from the receipt of notice of the Force Majeure Event, the party whose ability to perform has not been so affected may, by giving written notice, terminate this contract.

8. Nondiscrimination.

Grantee and its subcontractors, if any, shall not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment, to be employed in the performance of this contract, with respect to the hire, tenure, terms, conditions or privileges of employment or any matter directly or indirectly related to employment, because of his or her race, color, religion, sex, disability, national origin, status as a Viet Nam era Veteran, or ancestry. Breach of this covenant may be regarded as a material breach of contract.

9. Penalties/Interest/Attorney's fees.

The Commission will in good faith perform its required obligations hereunder and, does not agree to pay any penalties, liquidated damages, interest, or attorney's fees, except as required by Indiana law.

10. Compliance with laws.

The Grantee agrees to comply with all applicable Federal, State, and local laws, rules, regulations, or ordinances, and all provisions required thereby to be included herein, are hereby incorporated by reference. The enactment of any State or Federal Statute or the promulgation of regulations thereunder after execution of this contract shall be reviewed by the Attorney General and the Grantee to determine whether the provisions of this contract require formal amendment.

11. Governing Laws.

This contract shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the State of Indiana and suit, if any, must be brought in the State of Indiana.

12. Substantial Performance.

This contract shall be deemed to have been substantially performed only when fully performed according to its terms and conditions and any modification thereof.

13. Waiver of Rights.

No right conferred on either party under this contract shall be deemed waived and no breach of this contract excused, unless such waiver or excuse shall be in writing and signed by the party claimed to have waived such right.

14. Disputes.

Should any dispute arise with respect to this contract, the Commission and the Grantee agree to act immediately to resolve any such dispute. Time is of the essence in the resolution of disputes. The parties may submit their dispute directly to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Indiana. The parties agree that the Chief Justice's decision shall be a final resolution of the dispute.

15. Modifications.

This written agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties. Any modifications or additions hereto shall be in writing and signed by both parties.

The parties having read and understood the foregoing terms of the attached contract do by their respective signatures dated below hereby agree to the terms thereof.

Commission Standards for Six-Hour Applied Professionalism Course for Newly Admitted Lawyers

The Indiana Commission for Continuing Legal Education is required under Admission and Discipline Rule 29 to designate courses as appropriate for newly admitted lawyers. The Commission has determined that all newly admitted lawyers must take a Commission accredited six-hour applied professionalism course in their first three-year educational period. The Commission has adopted the following standards to ensure that these programs are of high quality.

1. GENERAL.

Participants must attend the program in its entirety, or they will not receive credit for the Applied Professionalism Course for Newly Admitted Lawyers.

Attorney Participants who are not newly admitted attorneys will receive six hours of ethics credits.

An Indiana attorney who teaches this program, or any part, shall receive four ethics credits for every hour spent teaching. If assistant trainers are used, each assistant trainer shall receive two ethics credits for every hour spent assisting.

The program must be presented live. The Commission encourages the effective use of technology within the program.

Sponsors must provide a list of Indiana lawyers in attendance within thirty days of completion of the program. This list must include the attorney number and address of each attendee.

II. QUALIFICATIONS FOR SPEAKERS AND ASSISTANTS.

Speakers and assistants should have appropriate experience in the subject matter. If a speaker is an attorney, he or she must be in good standing in some state and must not have been disqualified from the practice of law in any state. If the attorney is retired or inactive in another state, the license must not have been relinquished in exchange for dismissal of disciplinary charges.

At least one speaker must be an Indiana attorney approved by the Commission for the purpose of presenting the Rules of Professional Responsibility in Indiana.

III. TRAINING METHODOLOGY.

A variety of teaching techniques shall be employed including but not limited to: lecture, group discussion, written exercises, simulations, role plays and readings.

IV. CURRICULUM, IN GENERAL.

Sponsors must submit: a completed "APPLICATION FOR ACCREDITATION OF SIX-HOUR APPLIED PROFESSIONALISM COURSE FOR NEWLY ADMITTED LAWYERS," complete program agenda (including time breakdowns for each topic); bibliography of recommended reading; summary of materials to be used in the training; and speaker or presenter biographies.

V. SUGGESTED CURRICULUM.

A. Topics to be addressed must include:

Attorney relationships with third parties Trust Accounts and IOLTA, Attorney-Client Relationships, Professionalism/Civility and treatment of impairments through the Indiana Judges and Lawyers Assistance Program.

B. Additional topics concerning or emphasizing ethics, civility and/or professionalism may be included.

VI. REACCREDITATION

Any mandatory six-hour professionalism program for newly admitted lawyers is certified for a period of two years from the date of approval. However, the sponsor or applicant must submit a listing of scheduled courses at least 45 days before each course, giving the date, time and place of the course. Any material change in the course (such as a change in the main presenter or curriculum) requires a new application to the Commission.
