

Sponsor Application for Accreditation of Continuing Legal Education Course

This form may only be used by an education sponsor applying for credit.

Instructions

1. Determine the accreditation type. You need to know whether you wish to apply for a traditional CLE course, in-house, or distance education. For descriptions and restrictions, see <http://courts.in.gov/cle/2338.htm>.

2. Complete this form. Please print clearly or type your responses into this fillable form. Do not include these instructions (and the blank page that follows) with your application.

3. Determine whether or not you owe a fee. Use the chart below to determine whether or not you owe a fee to process this application and what the fee amount is. If you owe a fee, enclose with this form a check payable to "Office of Admissions and Continuing Education."

- To be considered timely, your completed application must be received at least 30 days prior to the course.
- To be considered timely, the certification of attendance of all Indiana attorneys who attended must be received no later than 30 days after the course.

	Application		Attendance
	Timely	Late	Timely	Late
Approved sponsor	$0	$25	$0	$25
Non-approved sponsor (exempt)*	$0	$25	$0	$50 ($25)
Non-approved sponsor (non-exempt)	$25	$50	$0	$25

*Exempt means not-for-profit that does not charge a course registration fee.

If attendance is reported late for an already approved course, fee is reduced to $25.

4. Submit your application. Return your completed application, including all required attachments and fees, by mail to:

Indiana Office of Admissions and Continuing Education
251 N. Illinois Street, Suite 550
Indianapolis, IN 46204-3564

IF YOU DO NOT INCLUDE ALL REQUIRED ATTACHMENTS AND PAYMENT (IF OWED), YOUR APPLICATION WILL BE RETURNED TO YOU.

5. Allow 60 days to process. Your application will be reviewed by the Commission for Continuing Legal Education. You will receive notification of the accreditation decision.

3. Delivery Method and Content

Traditional education

For traditional presentation methods, the course must provide a discussion leader or two-way communication, a classroom setting away from attorneys' offices, an opportunity to ask questions, and attendance must be monitored at the attendance site. Generally, distance and in-house education are not traditional courses. Self-study courses will not be approved. Check all that apply:

Self-study (i.e., booklet, CD-ROM, podcast)

Distance education

Distance education courses do not require attorneys to be in the same room as the speaker. However, the courses must be interactive, and the sponsor must be able to verify continuing attendance of the attorney through such means as random prompts, polling or quizzes during the course. Self-study courses will not be approved. Applications for distance education must be submitted at least 30 days prior to the course date. Attorneys cannot receive credit for non-legal subject matter through distance or in-house education. Attorneys may receive a maximum of 6 hours per 3-year educational period. Check all that apply:
