LR02-AR00-23 Attorney and Personal Representative Fee Guidelines for Decedents' Estates

Attorney Fees-Estates

Preamble

The Allen Superior Court, Civil Division has adopted these guidelines in an effort to achieve the following objectives:

- A. Establish uniformity in determining a fair and reasonable fee for supervised estates;
- B. Provide a guideline to assist the Court in determining fair and reasonable fees;
- C. Furnish a guideline to attorneys so they can discuss fees that may be reasonably incurred with their clients at the onset of administration;
- D. Assist the legal profession to arrive at a fair and reasonable fee for the estate work.

Every attorney and personal representative has an obligation to request a fee which is fair and reasonable for the work performed, taking into account those provisions of the Rules of Professional Conduct applicable to attorneys admitted to practice law in the State of Indiana. Except under extraordinary circumstances, a request for fees should not exceed these guidelines. In an uncomplicated estate, fees should be less than those listed in the schedule, and fees must always bear a reasonable relationship to the services rendered.

1. Principles applicable to Fee Determinations. Although fee guidelines have been promulgated by the Court for probate matters, it is important that your attention be directed to certain criteria as they pertain to these guidelines as follows:

- A. The time and labor required, the novelty, complexity, or difficulty of the questions involved, the skill required to perform the services properly, including a determination as to how much of the attorney's time was devoted to ministerial functions;
- B. The nature and extent of the responsibilities assumed by the attorney and the results obtained, including the considerations of the identity of the personal representative and the character of the probate and non-probate transferred assets;

- C. The sufficiency of assets properly available to pay for legal services, and whether the attorney's duties are expanded by the existence of non-probate assets because of their inclusion for tax purposes, both federal and state;
- D. The timeliness with which the necessary services are performed consistent with statutory requirements, the Court's rules of procedure and applicable Rules of Professional Conduct.

Attorneys are urged to discuss their fee and that of the personal representative at the time they are retained in all probate matters.

2. Attorney Fee Guidelines

I. Administration: Gross estate services are considered to normally include: probating the Will, opening of the estate, qualifying the personal representative, preparing and filing the Inventory, paying claims, collecting assets, preparing and filing non-extraordinary petitions, preparing and filing of Fiduciary Income Tax Return, preparing and filling all tax returns and schedules, obtaining Court Orders thereon, and paying the taxes, preparing and filing the Final Report, obtaining Order approving same, distributing assets, obtaining discharge of the personal representative, and serving all notices on interested parties throughout the proceedings. This list shall not be considered to be exclusive.

A. Gross Estate-Minimum Fee of $500.00 Plus:

Up to $100,000. Not to exceed.....	6%
Next $100,000. Not to exceed.....	4%
Next $100,000. Not to exceed.....	3%
Next $100,000. Not to exceed.....	2%
Over $400,000. Not to exceed.....	1%

B. Miscellaneous-Extraordinary Services:

- (1) Sale of Real Estate.....Hourly Rate.
- (2) Indiana Inheritance Tax Schedule-
(Preparation and filing only).
(To be applied only to non-administered property). One percent (1%) of the first \$100,000 of the non-administered assets of gross estate as determined for Indiana Inheritance Tax purpose, plus $\frac{3}{4}$ of 1% of the next \$150,000 of non-administered assets of the gross estate.
 $\frac{1}{2}$ of one percent (1%) on all non-administered assets of the gross estate in excess of \$250,000.
- (3) Federal Estate Tax Returns- (To be applied only if return required because of non-administered property, to be based only on assets not listed on Indiana Inheritance Tax Schedule). A base fee of \$750.00 or one percent (1%) of the first \$100,000. Of the non-administered assets of the gross estate as determined for Federal Estate Tax purposes plus: $\frac{3}{4}$ of one percent (1%) of the next \$150,000 of non-administered assets of the gross estate, plus $\frac{1}{2}$ of one percent (1%) on all non-administered assets of the gross estate in excess of \$250,000.
- (4) Ex parte Petitions not included under I, above.....$200.00
- (5) Other than as provided above.....Hourly Rate. (Attorney's expertise in probate matters will be considered by the Court in determining the applicable hourly rate).

- II. Wrongful Death Administration: The Court recognizes that in most instances a retainer or contingent fee agreement is an appropriate method by which legal services can be provided in wrongful death claims. Accordingly, fees shall be allowed under those agreements if, at the time of settlement of the claim, it is shown to the Court's satisfaction:
- A. The personal representative was, prior to entering such agreement, fully informed as to all aspects of the arrangement,
 - B. The agreement is fair and reasonable, and
 - C. The fee sought is fair and reasonable.

III. In General:

- A. Extraordinary Fee Requests. Fee petitions requesting extraordinary fees must set forth services rendered with specificity. Extraordinary service may include: sale of personal property, sale of real property, partial distributions, will contest actions, contesting claims, adjusting tax matters, contested hearings, petitions for instructions, heirship determinations, generating additional income for the estate, etc.

All petitions under this section will be set for hearing, with notice to all interested parties. If all interested parties sign a waiver and consent stating they have been advised that the additional fee request exceeds the Court's guidelines and that the services as detailed are extraordinary, the Court may, in its discretion, determine if a hearing is required.

An acceptable form of waiver is attached.

- B. Unsupervised Estates. The Court will not determine and allow fees in an unsupervised administration.
- C. Filing of Fee Petition. Before any fee is paid a petition for allowance of the fee shall be filed and determined by the Court. A request for fees will be considered only under the following circumstances:
- (1) The Inheritance Tax Petition is ready to be filed, or
 - (2) A petition to find no tax due has been approved, or
 - (3) Necessary for purposes of an estate fiduciary income tax deduction, or
 - (4) Under extraordinary circumstances.
- D. Payment of Fees. Except where payment has been authorized under C.3 or C.4 above, fees are payable one half (1/2) upon approval of fee petition and one half (1/2) upon approval of the Final Report.

WAIVER AND CONSENT TO ALLOWANCE OF FEES IN EXCESS OF GUIDELINES

The waiver and consent is not to be merely a pro forma waiver and consent, but is to be in substantially the following form:

IMPORTANT: PLEASE READ BEFORE SIGNING!

WAIVER AND CONSENT

The undersigned, an interested party in the Estate of _____ Understands that:

(A) The maximum fee ordinarily allowed by the Court for legal services in this Estate would amount to $_____;

(B) The Attorney has requested fees in the amount of $_____; alleging that extraordinary and unusual services have been performed.

The undersigned, being fully advised, now consents to the allowance of the requested fee, waives any notice of hearing on the Petition and requests that the Court allow fees in the amount of $_____.

Dated: _____
Devisee/Heir

3. Personal Representative Fees

I. Professional: The Court will approve their applicable prevailing rate, provided:

- (A) Those rates are on file with and approved by the Court.
- (B) The rate results in a reasonable fee in light of all circumstances.
- (C) A description of services rendered in support of a request for fees is filed.

II. Non-Professional: Fees may be allowed not to exceed one half (1/2) the fee allowed the attorney, provided:

- (A) The fee is reasonable in light of all circumstances.
- (B) A description of services rendered, including time spent with hourly rate in support of the request is filed.

III. Attorney: The Court recommends that attorneys not assume the dual role of attorney and personal representative in the same estate. When the attorney does serve as the personal representative, an additional amount not to exceed one-third (1/3) of the attorney fee may be allowed, provided:

- (A) The fee is reasonable in light of all circumstances.
- (B) A description of services rendered including time spent with hourly rate in support of the request is filed.

IV. In General: The Court will apply the same procedures to the allowance and drawing of fees and to a personal representative's extraordinary fee request as it does to attorney fee requests.

Adopted as Superior Civil Attorney Fee Guidelines, effective August 15, 1990. Renumbered as Superior and Circuit Civil Rule 6, and amended effective December 7, 2006. Amended and renumbered as Superior and Circuit Civil Rule AR00-23 effective January 1, 2015.

LR02-TR79-24 Selection of a Special Judge Pursuant to TR 79(H)

- A. Appointment by Clerk. If a special judge is not appointed pursuant to TR 79(D), the Clerk of the Court shall select a special judge (on a rotating basis) from a list consisting of judicial officers eligible under TR 79(J).

- B. Certification to the Supreme Court. In cases in which no judge is eligible to serve as special judge or the particular circumstances of a case warrant selection of a special judge by the Indiana Supreme Court, the appropriate Allen County Judge may certify the case to the Indiana Supreme Court for appointment of a special judge.

Reincorporated into the Local Civil Rules of the Allen Superior & Circuit Court effective January 1, 2015.

LR02-JR00-25 Juror Privacy

All provisions of this rule shall be construed to be consistent with disclosure either permitted or prohibited by Indiana Supreme Court Administrative Rule 9.

- A. Juror Safety and Privacy. Personal information relating to a juror or prospective juror not disclosed in open court is confidential, other than for the use of the parties and counsel. The Court shall maintain that confidentiality to an extent consistent with the constitutional and statutory rights of the parties.

- B. Public Access to Juror Names. Juror names shall not be used in open court or on the record. During trial proceedings, all prospective and seated jurors shall be referred to only by juror number or seat number. The jury administrator shall compile and maintain a master list consisting of lists approved by the Indiana Supreme Court that may be used to select prospective jurors. Once compiled, the master list of names is open to the public for examination as a public record. However, all other information other than the names contained in the master list is confidential.

- C. Access to Juror Information. The Jury Administration Office shall have exclusive access to juror information and disseminate juror information to parties, attorneys, and the public upon request when authorized to do so by this rule.
 - (1) The Jury Administration Office shall provide counsel with a copy of Juror Qualification Questionnaires, with the names and addresses redacted, no earlier than two (2) weeks in advance of trial.

(2) Upon request, the Jury Administration Office shall provide counsel with a complete subpanel list and unredacted Juror Qualification Questionnaires no earlier than the day of trial. The subpanel list and Juror Qualification Questionnaires shall be returned to the Court at the completion of the jury selection process. No photocopies or duplicates shall be made without specific Court authorization.

D. Anonymous Juries. Consistent with Indiana case law regarding anonymous juries, the Court may, upon the motion of either party, withhold juror names and addresses from parties and counsel only if the Court 1) enters findings to support a conclusion that there is a strong reason to believe the jury needs protection, and 2) takes reasonable precautions to minimize any prejudicial effects on the parties and to ensure that their fundamental rights are protected. If the Court withholds juror information from one party, the information shall be withheld from all parties.

Adopted as Juror Privacy, effective January 1, 2015.

LR02-TR33-26 Discovery: Interrogatories, Requests for Admission, Time to Serve

- A. Preparation. Interrogatories shall be tailored specifically to the cause in which they are served and be numbered consecutively to facilitate response.
- B. Number Limited. No party shall serve on any other party more than fifty (50) interrogatories including subparagraphs.
- C. Filing in Excess of the Limit. Any party desiring to serve interrogatories in excess of fifty (50) shall either:
- (1) file a stipulation of the parties, agreeing to the additional interrogatories; or
 - (2) if agreement cannot be obtained, file a written motion requesting leave of the Court to serve more than fifty (50) interrogatories; the motion shall set forth those additional proposed interrogatories, and shall explain their necessity; full compliance with Trial Rule 26(F) is required.
- D. Answers and Objections. Answers or objections to interrogatories under T.R. 31 or 33 shall set forth in full the interrogatories being answered or objected to immediately preceding the answer or objection.
- E. Time to Serve. All written discovery, whether directed to a party or nonparty to an action, must be served at least thirty-three (33) days prior to the expiration of any discovery deadline which may be established by the Court.
- F. Limit on Requests for Admission. Ordinarily, a party may not serve more than 30 requests for admission on another party (not counting requests that relate to the authenticity of a document). A party wanting to serve more requests must fully comply with Trial Rule 26(F), and file a motion setting forth the proposed additional requests and why they are necessary.

G. Discovery Disputes. Strict compliance with Trial Rules 26 through 37 is required. The discovery process is intended to be largely self-actuating, with minimal Court supervision. Therefore, the Court will not rule on motions related to discovery disputes unless moving counsel represents that, after personal or telephonic conference in good faith effort to resolve differences, counsel are unable to reach accord. If counsel advises the Court, by way of motion or response thereto, that opposing counsel has refused or delayed resolution of the discovery dispute, the Court may, after hearing, impose appropriate sanctions.

H. Motion to Strike. A party who has been served with interrogatories may file a motion to strike specific interrogatories as excessive, oppressive or repetitive, after fully complying with Trial Rule 26(F). The motion shall be set for hearing and does not serve to extend the time for answering interrogatories which are not in dispute.

Adopted as Discovery: Interrogatories, Requests for Admission, Time to Serve, effective January 1, 2015.

LR02-TR42- 27 Consolidation of Cases

Trial Rule 42 permits consolidation of cases for specific purposes, but generally not actual consolidation of the entire cases. Consistent with Trial Rule 42, upon the motion of a party and hearing or stipulation, the Court may enter orders in related cases to consolidate the cases for specific purposes, such as for case management, discovery, mediation, hearings, trial, etc.

Adopted as Consolidation of Cases, effective January 1, 2015.

LR02-AR00- 28 Preventing Independent Juror Research

A. Preliminary Instructions. In an effort to reduce the likelihood of a mistrial due to a juror conducting independent research, the Court shall, in its discretion, use a modified version of Indiana Model Civil Jury Instruction 101 upon administering its preliminary jury instructions. A copy of the modified instruction can be found at Appendix D.

B. Questioning by the Court. At the conclusion of reading the modified form of Model Civil Jury Instruction 101, the Court may, in its discretion, inquire as to the jurors' use of, and their corresponding ability to refrain from, using the technologies discussed in that instruction during the course of the trial. A sampling of questions aimed at achieving this goal can be found at Appendix E. If the Court concludes that a juror is not able to refrain from such use, the Court shall consider removing that juror from service.

C. Message Concerning Jury Service. In its discretion, the Court may also inquire as to whether the newly chosen jurors would like a message, furnished by the Court, which would explain to members of the public that jurors are not to discuss the facts of the case or any of the issues, facts, or concepts that are in any manner related to the trial. This message can be found at Appendix F.

- D. Statement of Compliance. At the closing of jury selection, the Court may, in its discretion, provide each juror with a copy of the Statement of Compliance found at Appendix G. The Court may require each juror to signal his or her acceptance of the Statement of Compliance, thereby indicating his or her intent to refrain from any prohibited activities.
- E. Short Form Admonishment. When releasing jurors for a short break, the Court shall read the Short Form Admonishment found at Appendix H.
- F. Long Form Admonishment. When releasing jurors for a longer break, such as for lunch or at the conclusion of each day of trial, the Court shall read the Long Form Admonishment found at Appendix I.
- G. Questioning the Jury Following a Recess. Upon resuming a trial, the Court may, in its discretion, question jurors so as to determine if those jurors participated in any activities that may result in the declaration of a mistrial. A listing of questions suggested for this purpose can be found at Appendix J.

Adopted as Preventing Independent Juror Research, effective January 1, 2015.

- Visit or view the scene of any event involved in this case, either in person or through the use of Google Maps, Google Earth, or any other internet mapping program. If you happen to pass by the scene, do not stop or investigate.

Finally, you must not:

- Talk to any of the parties, their lawyers, any of the witnesses, or members of the media. If anyone tries to talk to you about this case, you must tell the bailiff or me immediately.

You may discuss the evidence with your fellow jurors during the trial, but only in the jury room, and only when all of you are present. Even though you are permitted to have these discussions, you must not make a decision about the outcome of this case until your final deliberations begin. Until you reach a verdict, do not communicate about this case or your deliberations with anyone else.

In this age of instant electronic communication and research, I want to emphasize that in addition to not talking face to face with anyone else about the case, you must not communicate with anyone or post information about the case, or what you are doing in the case, by any means, including telephone, text messages, email, internet chat rooms, blogs, or social websites, such as Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, LinkedIn, YouTube, and the like.

You also must not Google or otherwise search for any information about the case, or the law that applies to the case, or the people involved in the case, including the parties, witnesses, lawyers, or Judge.

During the trial, you may tell people who need to know that you are a juror, and you may give them information about when you will be required to be in court. But you must not talk with them or others about anything else related to the case. After your service on this jury is concluded, you are free to talk with anyone about the case or do whatever research you wish. If you find it helpful, the Court can provide you with a note that you can furnish to anyone attempting to speak with you about your service here.

The Court recognizes that these rules and restrictions may affect activities that you would consider to be normal and harmless, and I assure you that I am very much aware that I am asking you to refrain from activities that may be very common and very important in your daily lives. That is why I want you to understand why these rules are so important. The law requires these restrictions to ensure the parties have a fair trial based on the evidence that each party has had an opportunity to address. If one or more of you were to get additional information from an outside source, that information might be inaccurate or incomplete, or for some other reason not applicable to this case, and the parties would not have a chance to explain or contradict that information because they would not know about it. That is why it is so important that you base your verdict only on information you receive in this courtroom.

Therefore, our law does not permit jurors to talk about the case with anyone except fellow jurors. The law also does not permit jurors to allow anyone to talk to them about the case. The reason for this is that only jurors are authorized to render a verdict. Only you have been found to be fair, and only you have promised to be fair—no one else has been so qualified.

Our law does not permit you to visit a place discussed in the testimony because you cannot be sure that the place is in the same condition as it was on the day in question. Also, even if it were in the same condition, once you go to a place to evaluate evidence in light of what you see there, you become a witness, not a juror. As a witness, you may now have an erroneous view of the scene that may not be subject to correction by either party. That is not fair.

Finally, our law requires that you not read or listen to any news accounts of the case, and that you not attempt to research any fact, law, or person related to the case. Your decision must be based solely on the testimony and other evidence presented in this courtroom. It would not be fair for you to base your decision on some reporter's view or opinion, or upon information that you acquire outside the courtroom from a source that cannot be challenged or cross-examined by the parties.

These rules are designed to help guarantee a fair trial, and our law accordingly provides for serious consequences if the rules are not followed. Any juror who violates these restrictions I have explained to you jeopardizes the fairness of these proceedings, and a mistrial could result that would require the entire trial process to start over. As you can imagine, a mistrial is a tremendous expense and inconvenience to the parties, the Court, and the taxpayers. If any juror is exposed to any outside information, or has any difficulty whatsoever in following these instructions, please notify the Court immediately. If any juror becomes aware that one of your fellow jurors has done something that violates these instructions, you are obligated to report that to the Court as well.

Additionally, if you hear or observe anything about this case outside this courtroom, whether inadvertently or otherwise, you must immediately inform the Court at the beginning of our next session. Do not discuss any of these things with your fellow jurors at any time.

I trust that you understand and appreciate the importance of following these rules and, in accord with your oath and promise, I know that you will do so.

Adopted as Appendix D, effective January 1, 2015.

Adopted effective May 1, 2007.

LR02-TR16-722. Case Management

(1) An initial Case Management Conference (CMC) shall be set in every case where at least one-half day of trial is sought. When either party requests a Case Management Conference, the CMC shall typically be scheduled to occur within 30 days of the request. Absent leave of Court, trial dates for those matters of at least one-half day will not be assigned until after the CMC is held and after mediation had occurred. Trial dates for such cases will be assigned at a Pre-Trial Conference (PTC).

(2) At the Case Management Conference, the Court will address and very likely order mediation, discuss family law arbitration, inquire of the matters at issue, discuss discovery, and schedule a Pre-Trial Conference. Absent leave of Court, mediation must occur before the PTC is conducted.

(3) Should the case not be resolved at mediation, then at the PTC, the Court will inquire of the matters at issue, schedule primary and/or secondary trial dates, schedule a Final PTC, and establish discovery and other deadlines.

(4) Hearings requiring less than one-half day may be set upon request without a CMC. However, if the case involves matters where mediation is required regardless of the length of the hearing, such as one involving any issue concerning parenting time (e.g., parenting time modification, custody modification, contempt regarding parenting time, child support modification where the number of overnights is an issue) mediation must occur prior to the hearing unless prior leave of Court is otherwise obtained. When mediation is required for hearings of less than one-half day, the moving party shall also file a motion for mediation prior to, or with the notice of hearing.

(5) Case Management Conferences may be set in any matter and at any procedural phase if helpful to assist the parties and the Court in efficient management of the case. Parties represented by counsel need not personally appear at the CMC or PTC unless otherwise ordered by the Court. The party requesting the CMC shall submit a "Notice of Case Management Conference" (similar to a Notice of Hearing) when requesting the date for the CMC.

(6) Cooperative Divorce. Parties formally engaging in the Cooperative Divorce process shall be provided priority settings for Case Management Conferences and will be afforded other such procedural assistance as appropriate to assist in expediting their cooperative process.

Adopted effective May 1, 2007.

LR02-TR73-723. Hearings

(1) Hearings will be limited to the time scheduled on the calendar, and it shall be the responsibility of the moving party to ensure adequate time is reserved for the completion of the hearing. Should the parties be unable to complete the hearing within the scheduled time, the hearing will be continued and reset on the calendar, unless otherwise directed by the Court. In the event a party files subsequent motions after the matter is set for hearing, will be heard only if time permits. If time does not permit the subsequent motions to be heard, the motions shall be reset.

(2) Not all family relations hearings are electronically recorded. It is the parties' responsibility to request an electronic recording if they desire the same. Absent such a request, the recording might not be made.

(3) At a hearing for provisional orders, a party may elect to present evidence in a summary manner or by direct testimony. If evidence is presented in a summary manner, then the party presenting the evidence shall be sworn under oath and verify the representations made by counsel. The rules of evidence with respect to hearsay shall apply unless waived by the parties. If an attorney makes a representation by an individual who is not a party during a summary presentation of evidence, that individual must be present to verify the statement. LR02-JV00-736. Children in Need of Services-Preliminary Inquiry Hearings

Procedure – In all cases in which the court is to determine whether to authorize a petition, the court shall conduct a hearing to consider the preliminary inquiry and evidence of probable cause to believe a child is a child in need of services. If probable cause is found and a petition is authorized, the court shall schedule an Initial Hearing and order the parties to participate in facilitation. From the evidence and reports presented the court shall:

Enter an order for the detention of the child or to release the child to the child's parent, guardian or custodian under the supervision of the Department of Child Services;
Consider and determine whether to enter a provisional order for the care, treatment and rehabilitation of the child, the parent, guardian, and/or custodian;
Determine whether the child and/or the parent, guardian, and/or custodian should be ordered to complete a mental health assessment and/or psychological evaluation;
Determine whether the child and/or the parent guardian, and/or custodian should be referred for services through the court's Mental Health Specialty Track; and,
Enter findings as to whether the state has made reasonable efforts to prevent the removal of the child from the home or whether exigent circumstances precluded the opportunity to provide services to the parent, guardian or custodian.
Facilitation – At the Court's discretion, the court may order that a preliminary hearing be first addressed in facilitation in the manner as set forth herein.

Adopted effective May 1, 2007.

LR02-JV00-737. Children in Need of Services – Facilitation of Initial Hearings and Dispositional Hearings

Facilitation – Immediately preceding the Initial Hearing on a petition to adjudicate a child to be a child in need of services, or at a time otherwise directed by the court, a facilitation shall be conducted.

Facilitation defined – Facilitation is a confidential process in which a neutral third person, appointed by the court, acts to encourage and to assist the parties in achieving a non-adversarial resolution to the allegations set forth in the petition alleging the child to be a child in need of services. The facilitator assists the parties in problem identification and resolution. During the facilitation process, the parties may agree to orally amend the allegations of the petition and the terms of the proposed plan for parent participation. The facilitator will assist the parties in resolving issues regarding the child's placement; the plan for visitation by the parent, guardian, and/or custodian; the responsibilities, duties and requisite services for the family's care, treatment and rehabilitation; the roles of other individuals in the family's rehabilitation; and other matters relative insuring the child's protection and best interests.

Participants to the facilitation – The parent, guardian and/or custodian; the attorney representing the parent, guardian, and or custodian; the guardian ad litem or court appointed special advocate; the county Department of Child Services shall participate in the facilitation process. The child shall attend the facilitation if the child's guardian ad litem or court appointed special advocate believes it is in the child's best interests to attend and believes the child to be of suitable age and maturity to participate. The child's relatives; the foster parent; persons providing support for the parent, guardian or custodian; and/or other persons who have significant or caretaking relationships to the child may be in attendance at the facilitation unless excluded by the court. Facilitations are not otherwise open to the public except as may be approved by the court for the purposes of training or research.

Facilitation Procedure – All cases pending an Initial Hearing shall be first submitted for facilitation.

All parties are required to mediate the issues in good faith but are not compelled to reach an agreement.

The facilitator shall first determine whether the parties named in the petition have been apprised of their rights. Any request for the appointment of pauper counsel shall be completed in writing on a form prescribed by the court and submitted to a judge or magistrate for a ruling prior to the start of the facilitation.

The facilitator shall explain the process and identify the issues that are to be discussed in facilitation.

Each allegation of the petition alleging the child to be a child in need of services shall be reviewed. Parties shall be given an opportunity to explain their position with regard to each allegation. Where appropriate and, by agreement of the parties, the allegation may be amended. Once the petition is facilitated, the facilitator shall assist the participants in determining the nature and types of services in which the child or parent, guardian, custodian, or other person should be required to participate. Agreements reported to the court following facilitation must be based on the autonomous decisions of the parties and not the decisions of the facilitator.

The facilitator shall orally present the facilitation report to the court at the Initial Hearing and, if appropriate, the Dispositional Hearing. The report shall include a recitation of the parties' respective admissions and denials to the allegations of the petition, the parties' agreement for provisional orders, parent participation plan and/or dispositional decree and a statement of unresolved issues.

At the Initial Hearing, the court will confirm with the parties and the participants the terms of the facilitated agreement. The Court may adopt the parties' agreement as orders of the court if it determines the agreement is in the best interests of the child. Issues that are not resolved through facilitation or not adopted as an order of the court may be referred back by the court for additional facilitation, may be resolved by order of the court based on a summary presentation, or may be scheduled by the court for a subsequent hearing or fact finding.

The rules of evidence do not apply in facilitation.

Termination of Facilitation – The facilitator may terminate facilitation whenever the facilitator believes that continuation of the process would harm or prejudice the child or one or more of the parties. The facilitator may bifurcate the process whenever the facilitator determines that due to a party's history of domestic violence would impede another party's ability to openly discuss issues should the other person be present.

Confidentiality – Statements and issues discussed in facilitation are confidential and may not be used as statements against interest or otherwise against a party in any Initial Hearing, fact finding, or pending or impending civil or criminal trial unless consent by the declarant is given. Facilitators shall not be subject to process requiring the disclosure of any matter discussed during the facilitation, but rather, such matter shall be considered confidential and privileged in nature. The confidentiality requirement may not be waived by the parties, and an objection to the obtaining of testimony or physical evidence from facilitation may be made by any party or by the facilitators.

Qualification of Facilitators – All facilitators shall be appointed by the court. In determining the appointment of a facilitator, the court may require the following training to be completed: A series of court-approved classes or seminars on the principles of Family Group Decision Making and/or dependency mediation as offered by the court, the American Humane Association, model courts designated by the National Counsel of Juvenile and Family Court Judges; or dependency mediation courses that may be offered by the Association of Family and Conciliation Courts;

Classes or seminars on the law governing children in need of services;

Classes or seminars on issues related to poverty, racial and cultural diversity, strength based practices, and positive youth development; and,

In addition to the foregoing, the court may require a facilitator to complete Alternative Dispute Resolution training as set forth in Alternative Dispute Resolution Rule 2.5

Appointment of Pauper Counsel – Any party requesting appointment of paper counsel in any case shall complete a questionnaire prescribed by the court that requests information regarding the applicant’s employment, earnings, financial resources, education, training, age, family composition, disabilities, or other information necessary for the court to consider the applicant’s eligibility for the appointment of pauper counsel. After considering the complexities of the factual and legal issues in this case, the likelihood of the applicant’s ability to prevail on the merits of the case, the ability of the applicant to investigate and present the applicant’s claims and/or defenses without an attorney, and the opportunity for facilitation/mediation, the court will enter findings and order that determines whether the applicant has sufficient means to defend or prosecute the case. Based on its findings, the court may appoint pauper counsel who will be fully or partially compensated by the court. The court may require the applicant to pay and be responsible for all or part of the pauper counsel’s fees.

Attorney Guardian ad Litem and Pauper Counsel Fees – Services by attorneys appointed by the court to serve as paper counsel or as a guardian ad litem shall be deemed quasi pro bono and shall be paid upon submission of a claim for services as restricted by the court’s fee schedule. The fee schedule will be based upon an hourly fee as set forth in the court’s order of appointment. With the exception of costs of copying and postage, any fees or costs not set out in the fee schedule must be pre-approved by the court. By acceptance of appointment the court appointed counsel agrees to abide by the fee schedule established by the court and further agrees to timely submit all claims for payment. Claims for payment should be submitted on the day services are rendered unless other arrangements are made with the court. Any claims for fee not submitted within thirty (30) days from the date the services were rendered will be deemed waived and such services will be regarded as rendered entirely pro bono.

Adopted effective May 1, 2007.

Prior to the filing of a Motion to Compel counsel shall comply with the provisions of Trial Rule 26(F).

(F) Nothing herein shall limit any party's right to seek protective orders to avoid destruction or other loss of evidence, or to seek deposition at such times as they may desire.

(J) Failure of either party to engage in and comply with discovery shall not be excused by the parties' unsuccessful or incomplete efforts to enter into a plea agreement or other resolution of the case unless both parties waive in writing

(1) compliance with this order for a specified period of time and

(2) any speedy trial requirements.

(K) Any cost for reproduction or transcripts under this order shall be borne by the party to whom the information is provided except that as to pauper counsel defendants the costs shall be borne by the State or County.
