Single new request

$500,000 per year:

Civil Legal Aid

Helps provide legal services to Hoosiers of limited means

What will $500,000 do?

Provide legal assistance to individuals, stabilize families, and enhance our workforce.

Legal assistance for:

- Hoosiers who are victims of domestic violence
- Veterans and military families struggling in civilian life
- Elderly whose economic security or health care is in jeopardy
- Children who need a stable home
- Homeowners facing foreclosure
- Communities devastated by natural disasters

Return on investment

Results from Indiana 2018 economic impact study:

$1
invested in civil legal aid

Delivers $6.70 in immediate and long-term financial benefits

Coalition for Court Access

We have restructured how we deliver legal help to close the justice gap on this critical need.

20 legal stakeholders provide a comprehensive organizational structure for Indiana's civil legal aid programs.

Utilizes a business model to create efficiency, better services, and better results.

7,780 Hoosier attorneys + hundreds of law students donated over a half-million hours of volunteer legal services for those of limited means last year.
