In the Matter of Administrative Rule 17
Emergency Relief for Indiana Trial Courts
Relating to the 2019 Novel Coronavirus
(COVID-19).

Supreme Court Case Nos.
20S-CB-123 and
20S-CB-231

Court of Appeals Case No.
20A-CB-730

Order

On June 19, 2020, the Indiana Supreme Court and Court of Appeals of Indiana extended certain emergency relief through July 6, 2020 for matters in the Indiana Supreme Court, Court of Appeals, Tax Court, and Clerk of Courts.

Because the timeframe for the Indiana Statehouse to reopen to the public remains uncertain due to the ongoing public health emergency relating to the 2019 novel coronavirus (COVID-19), the Courts on their own motion EXTEND the relief granted on April 30 and ORDER as follows:

1. Filing pursuant to Appellate Rule 23(A)(1) by personal delivery to the Clerk or the “rotunda filing drop box” is suspended until further order of the Courts.
2. Parties who cannot meet the deadlines established in the March 23, 25, and 27 orders issued in the above cases are directed to move for an extension of time (notwithstanding any contrary provision of Appellate Rules 9(A)(5), 35(C), 54, 57, or 63) or for leave to file their document belatedly pursuant to Appellate Rule 1. Such motions shall be verified (signed under a statement affirming, under penalties for perjury, that the statements made in the motion are true). Relief will be granted for good cause shown, notwithstanding any provision of the Appellate Rules imposing a more stringent standard.

In all other respects, the April 7, April 30, May 19, and June 19 orders issued in the above cases remain in full force and effect.
