

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COURT REPORTER ANNUAL REPORT

Reporting Year: January 1, 2018 through December 31, 2018

The “Court Reporter Annual Report” must be filed on-line by all court reporters employed by the court no later than February 15, 2019.

In the appropriate area, provide the name of court reporter, work phone, the name of the county for which court reporting services were provided, and court identification number (i.e., Marion Circuit Court: 49C01). If you perform court-reporting services for more than one court, report for only the primary court. (Example: If you work for Circuit Court but occasionally fill in or type transcripts for Superior Court, report that your court is Circuit Court, but still report all fees.)

1. Indigent Money Collected – Enter the total money collected for transcripts, depositions, and hearings requested by indigent parties regardless of whether the money actually comes from the county or a court budget.
  - a. Do not include money for copies.
  - b. Additional fees, if any, for exhibits should be included here.
  - c. Include all money collected even if overhead expenditures had to be deducted for paper, typist, etc.
  - d. Indicate not only complete transcript preparation, but also partial transcripts prepared for other court reporters or for other courts.
  - e. If no money was collected for the category, please indicate “0” or “none” for the totals.
2. Money Collected for Other Government Transcripts – Enter the total money collected for transcripts, depositions, and hearings requested by prosecutors or any other government office but not Public Defender.
3. Non-indigent Money Collected – Enter the total money collected for private transcripts, depositions, and hearings.
  - a. Do not include money for copies.
  - b. Additional fees, if any, for exhibits should be included here.
  - c. Include all money collected even if overhead expenditures had to be deducted for paper, typist, etc.
  - d. Indicate not only complete transcript preparation, but also partial transcripts prepared for other court reporters or for other courts.
  - e. If no money was collected for the category, please indicate “0” or “none” for the totals.
4. Total of all money collected – Add lines 1 through 3.
5. Money Collected for Copies - Provide the total copy money collected for all hearings and depositions transcripts. If no money was collected for the category, please indicate “0” or “none” for the totals.
6. Total of All Money Collected – Add together lines 4 and 5.
7. Total number of Transcripts – Enter the total number of indigent and non-indigent transcripts.

Instructions for line 1c and 3c apply because of Administrative Rule 15 C (3) which states that the courts may, by adopting a local rule, elect to procure all court reporter services by private contract and submit such contract for approval by the Indiana Supreme Court in accordance with Section A of the rule.
