Biographical Note:

William Marven Reser was born 19 June 1863 in Tippecanoe County, Indiana to Harvey and Sarah Waymire Reser. Later in life he decided to go to school to become a physician. He received his M.D. in 1903 from Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He married Mary Erisman on 10 October 1907. He practiced medicine in Lafayette, Indiana where he donated his services to the county orphan's home for twenty-five years. He retired from medicine in 1940.

He was a prolific speaker on local history, often giving lectures on local, regional, and state historical topics such as "Wabash and Erie Canal and its local importance." He also wrote two monographs: Grist Mills of Tippecanoe County, Indiana, 1945, and John Rudolph Waymire and the First Three Generations of his Descendents as known March 1, 1925, 1925, as well as articles and pamphlets regarding local and state history for the local newspapers and "Indiana's Second State Fair" for the Indiana Magazine of History. He was a charter member of the Tippecanoe County Historical Society and served as its president and vice-president. Dr. Reser passed away 19 March 1943.

Scope and Content Note:

The collection consists of papers from 1881-1940, though the bulk of the materials cover 1920-1935. Dr. Reser corresponded with his relatives in order to compile extensive genealogy charts and family histories, which make up the greater part of this collection. Dr. Reser focused on the Hoover and Waymire branches of his family.

The materials within this collection include correspondence, family histories, clippings, DAR ephemerae, sketches of individuals, family tree charts, and Dr. Reser's research files for the Tippecanoe County Historical Society, lectures, and articles.
