

This Week in Indiana History

Garfield the Cat Debuts Nationwide: June 19th, 1978

On this day, American's favorite tabby cat debuted in the funny papers. The cat known for his love of lasagna, his dislike of Mondays, and grumpy one-liners is the artistic creation of Muncie's very own Jim Davis. To this day, Davis' feline friend continues to delight millions of readers world wide with his daily adventures and musings about life, all of which takes place in Delaware County, Indiana.

The State Library has a signed copy of Garfield's first serialized book in its collection!
