Table of Contents

Summary Information ................................................................................................................................. 3

Biographical Note .................................................................................................................................. 4

Scope and Contents ................................................................................................................................... 4

Arrangement ................................................................................................................................................... 5

Administrative Information .......................................................................................................................... 5

Controlled Access Headings ........................................................................................................................ 5
Summary Information

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Repository</th>
<th>Rare Books and Manuscripts</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Creator</td>
<td>Indiana State Library.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Title</td>
<td>Katharine Atkins oral history</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Date</td>
<td>1977-1978</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Extent</td>
<td>0.02 Cubic feet 2 audiotape reels</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Language</td>
<td>English</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Preferred Citation

Katharine Atkins oral history, Rare Books and Manuscripts, Indiana State Library
Biographical Note

Katharine L. (Watson) Atkins was born June 12, 1902 to Phileman Mitchell and Genevieve M. (Bassel) Watson in Indianapolis, Indiana. On February 18, 1922, she married Elias Cornelius Atkins (II), son of Henry C. and Sue (Winter) Atkins, on February 18, 1922 in Marion County, Indiana. They had two children together: Elias C. (III) and Ann Paxton. Her husband became the head of E.C. Atkins & Company, a world-renowned saw manufacturer founded in Indianapolis in 1856-1857 by his grandfather, for whom he was named. Katharine Atkins died in Indianapolis on July 20, 1993 and was buried in Crown Hill Cemetery.

Source:

Scope and Contents

This collection contains a recorded interview with Katharine Atkins, conducted in 1978 as part of the Indiana State Library Oral History Project. It is available on a set of two tapes. The Indiana State Library can provide playback equipment. No transcript is available.
Arrangement

This collection is arranged chronologically.

Administrative Information

Publication Information

Rare Books and Manuscripts

Conditions Governing Access

This collection is open for research.

Conditions Governing Use

Legal title, copyright, and literary rights reside with Rare Books and Manuscripts, Indiana State Library, Indianapolis, IN. All requests to publish or quote from manuscripts must be submitted to Rare Books and Manuscripts.

Custodial History

This collection was created by the Indiana State Library Oral History Project in 1978.

Accruals

No further additions are expected.

Processing Information

Controlled Access Headings
Genre(s)

- Oral history interview

Geographic Name(s)

- Indianapolis (Ind.)

Personal Name(s)

- Atkins, Katharine

Subject(s)

- Family life
- Industrialists--Indiana
- Reel-to-reel audiotapes