Firefly Awards voting ends May 10

Do not miss your chance to vote for this year's Firefly Award winner. Votes are collected at Indiana's Public Libraries and other voting locations. Libraries may collect their votes however they wish, but each child may only vote one time.

Other locations like schools, day-cares, and bookstores may collect votes as well, however efforts should be made to ensure that each child is voting only one time.

Voting ends at midnight on May 10, 2015.

On May 11, please tally the votes from your location for each of the 8 Indiana Early Literacy Firefly Award Nominees.

Send those tallies in an email to SuzanneWalker at suwalker@library.in.gov.

Book signing at IHB April 16

On Thursday, April 16 the Indiana Historical Bureau will host a book signing with distinguished Indiana scholars James H. Madison and Stephen E. Towne. The authors will speak about their new books starting at 5 p.m. with a book signing before and after the event. Please arrive early to enjoy refreshments or to purchase copies of Madison's

Get Outside the Lines

Outside the Lines is a weeklong celebration demonstrating the creativity and innovation happening in libraries. Whether your organization is large or small, a school library or a public library, you can participate by hosting at least one event or campaign that:

1. Gets people thinking – and talking – about libraries in a different way
2. Showcases the library out in the community as well as in the library
3. Highlights how your library is relevant to people’s lives
4. Represents your local community
5. Is active versus passive – gets people engaged
6. Is extraordinary and unexpected
7. Most importantly, is fun!

Need LEU'S? Consider the following workshops.

The Indiana State Library (ISL) will be hosting its Interlibrary Loan Spring Workshop on Monday, April 20, 2015. The session which will be held in the History Reference Room 211 is from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.

Presentations will cover basic searching skills using OCLC FirstSearch and how to select the best record for interlibrary loan, as well as how to use the ISL Book Club list effectively. Come hear about some of the exciting new opportunities coming to IN-SHARE, InfoExpress and more.

This workshop is worth 2 LEUs or contact hours and is designed for staff that is new to ILL, as well as those who will not be able to attend the Discovery to Delivery VI Conference in May.

On the morning of April 20, the Indianapolis Public Library (IPL) will be hosting its Non-Profit Day at their Book sale between 8 a.m. and 11 a.m. at the IPL Services Center located at 2450 N Meridian Street, in Indianapolis.

Once again, the ISL will be hosting a no cost shipping service for participants who subscribe to InfoExpress. Just bring the materials you select to the table and ISL staff will have them shipped to your library using InfoExpress.

Interested libraries are asked to pre-register so we can be ready to ship your materials.

Registration for both events is available on the ISL April calendar.

Pets are Family Too!

government information via Indiana's libraries and data centers.

State Data Center Coordinator Katharine Springer of the ISL explains GID15 in the following statements.

"This is a great day to learn from information professionals as well as talk one-on-one with federal, state, and local agencies.

"GID15 is a day for networking. Young professionals have the opportunity to interact with government professional as well as their peers.

"We are opening up the line of communication. While this day is geared towards librarians, it is a unique opportunity for the public to come in and talk to these professionals as well."

GID15 is a no cost event for anyone who wishes to attend. Librarians can earn up to six Library Education Units (LEUs) towards their certification.

Julius Caesar "J.C." Dunn

This story is from the ISL blog:

The Genealogy Division at the Indiana State Library does not collect just published books and materials. They also have a small but growing collection of genealogy manuscripts. These collections contain family papers, research notes, and other items that cannot be put out on the shelves due to their fragile state or because they are boxes of loose papers.

Mr. & Miss Math and Science

What better way to honor outstanding students who are taking advantage of #STEM education than by honoring them in the 2015 Mr. and Miss Math and Mr. and Miss Science awards? Governor Pence recently announced that nominations are now being accepted for these awards and that four winners will receive $1,000 college scholarships through Indiana's CollegeChoice 529 Direct Savings Plan. These awards honor students who are excelling in science, technology, engineering, and math, and who will hopefully pursue a career in one of these fields.

If you are a student or know a student who meets this criteria, please fill out an application here.

- USA Patriot Act, FERPA, COPPA, ECPA, and the Privacy Act
- Federal and state laws, as well as constitutional considerations of privacy for public employees and employers
- Privacy in online activities, including off-hours conduct and social media use
- Rights to privacy in use of employer phone/computer
- Drug testing in the workplace
- Conditions for releasing information
- Liability considerations

Check-in will begin at 8:30 AM in the Great Hall on the 2nd floor of the Indiana State Library (315 West Ohio Street, Indianapolis, IN 46202). The first session will begin at 9:00 AM and our day concludes at 4:00 PM. A light breakfast and afternoon snack will be served. Lunch is on your own.

Read about Ms. McCord's achievements at <http://www.digitalinfolaw.com/> and follow her on Twitter @GMcCordLaw.

This workshop will be approved for 5-6 LEUs. CLE approval for attorneys is pending. Funding for this workshop is provided by the Institute for Museum and Library Services.
