

The Brown County Health Department
Is pleased to offer a class to obtain certification and become a

ServSafe Certified Food Manager

March 13-14th—— 2 day class

8:30 am to 12:30pm on the 13th

8:30 am to 2:30 pm on the 14th

(test at about noon on the 14th)

CLASS LOCATION: 200 Hawthorne Drive (Health Dept) Nashville IN

The cost for the class is $150, which includes the class, the Latest ServSafe 7th edition textbook with the 2022 food code updates, and your test. Indiana is preparing to adopt the 2022 Food Code in summer of 2024

QUESTIONS?
Call the Health
Dept.
↓
(812) 988-2255

You will get your textbook when you pay for the class. Please pick up your textbook at the Health Department as soon as possible so you can study. There is much information to cover and you need to read this textbook in advance. CREDIT CARD, MONEY ORDER OR CASH, or CHECKS If you have the 7th edition text and only want to take the test, the cost to take just the test is $60. You are welcome to audit the entire class if you choose this option.

ServSafe Certification is for five years and is accepted nationally

CHECK YOUR Certification EXPIRATION DATE...

If you are operating a food service establishment and making food (and are not exempt as a non-profit)

You are required to have a Certified Food Handler On your Staff.

CALL 812-988-2255

FOR MORE
INFORMATION