About the IDA Program

Since 1997, Indiana’s IDA program has assisted low-moderate income Hoosiers attain their goals of homeownership, higher education and small-business start-up through matched-savings incentives and financial education. Operating behind the rationale that income alone is not enough for individuals to break trends of generational poverty, the IDA program focuses on asset building as a key component towards family and self-sufficiency.

Participants in the IDA program are eligible to receive:

- Up to $3,600 in state and federal match funds towards one of the eligible asset goals
- One-on-one counseling and 8+ hours of financial education covering topics such as budgeting, savings, credit, banking, taxes, and other money management strategies.
