

YOU'RE INVITED

to a frank, free, and no-obligation discussion about Indiana's Housing Choice
Voucher program.

Learn how it can provide stable income
for your rental business and fill your vacant units!

Where: Harvest Room at Porter County Community Foundation
(Door Access 21401)
1401 Calumet Ave., Valparaiso

When: Tuesday, June 18, 7:30-9 a.m. Central time.

Join us for a light breakfast and to chat about:

- * Benefits to landlords and property managers who participate in the Housing Choice Voucher program.
- * The pre-screening process for prospective tenants.
- * How easy it is to become a partnering owner or landlord.
- * Experiences of existing owners and landlords.
- * Common myths about rental assistance programs.
- * FREE marketing for your property through online databases.
- * Resources available to your tenants for accessibility improvements.

Hosts: The Indiana Housing & Community Development Authority, Back Home in Indiana Alliance, and Indiana Division of Aging, Money Follows the Person.

Please RSVP so we can plan the food! Just text the date of the event (June 18), the number of people coming, and your first and last name to (317) 638-2392 today! You may also call that number to RSVP and/or get more information.

