

Special IHEDA Info- Community Development Week

The Indiana Housing and Community Development Authority (IHEDA), chaired by Lt. Governor Sue Ellspermann, creates housing opportunity, generates and preserves assets, and revitalizes neighborhoods by investing financial and technical resources in the development efforts of qualified partners throughout Indiana. Growing Indiana's economy starts at home.

For more information on IHEDA please visit www.ihcda.in.gov.

For updates from Lt. Governor Ellspermann and the agencies she oversees, sign up at www.lg.in.gov

National Community Development Week is April 1st-5th

Please join Lt. Governor Sue Ellspermann as she celebrates the community development efforts that are revitalizing the Hoosier state during National Community Development Week.

Elected community officials, colleagues from the community development field, and representatives from the Indiana Housing and Community Development Authority, the Indiana Office of Community and Rural Affairs, and the Indiana Department of Transportation will join the Lt. Governor for an open house reception in the North Atrium of the Indiana State House.

Enjoy refreshments and informative displays from communities who have partnered with these agencies for a variety of comprehensive community revitalization and development achievements.

- Thursday, April 4th
- 1-3 pm
- North Atrium of the Indiana State House

For more information, please email Beth Dawson or call or 317-232-8333.

