

ABOUT

ANDREA RAHMAN

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE

MEDIATOR

Andrea Rahman served as an Administrative Law Judge for the Office of Administrative Law Proceedings (OALP) in 2022. In January 2023, she transitioned to serving as the Deputy General Counsel for OALP.

Prior to joining OALP, Andrea worked as a Deputy Attorney General for the Office of the Indiana Attorney General (OAG) for 7 years. Andrea first began working in the Civil Appeals section as an appellate attorney, and then she transitioned to working as a litigator in the Administrative and Regulatory Enforcement section of the OAG. She spent time in private practice prior to OALP.

Andrea is known for her calm demeanor, inquisitive mind, and rational approach to disagreements. Her background in government and administrative law provides her with the ability to quickly assess the merits of a party's case and facilitate a respectful discussion on how a resolution can be reached.

EDUCATION

IU McKinney School of Law
Indianapolis, Indiana
Juris Doctorate

Indiana Wesleyan University
Marion, Indiana
Bachelor of Arts

STATE OF INDIANA
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW PROCEEDINGS

