

ABOUT

JEFF GARN

MEDIATOR

Jeff has served as Deputy Director and General Counsel at the Office of Administrative Law Proceedings since early 2022.

Prior to joining OALP, Jeff dedicated 10 years Indiana Attorney General's Office where he was lead counsel for 300+ civil litigation matters and served as section chief of the Administrative and Regulatory Enforcement Section. He also spent time working at a large Indianapolis law firm, exclusively handling business immigration matters.

Before moving to Indianapolis, he assisted in the management of a Foreign Corrupt Practices Act investigation in Washington, D.C. He previously clerked for four judges in the District of Columbia Superior Court, primarily assisting with matters on the criminal docket.

Jeff Garn is known for his unparalleled knowledge of administrative law and litigation strategy.

EDUCATION

Washington College of Law, American University, Washington, D.C.

Juris Doctorate

Seattle Pacific University, Seattle, WA

Bachelor of Arts

STATE OF INDIANA
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW PROCEEDINGS

