

Aaron W. K. Bonar

Indianapolis, Indiana

- Attorney
- Administrative Law Judge, Natural Resources Commission (NRC)

Travel: Statewide and Virtual

Areas of Interest:

- Natural Resources
- Environmental
- Family
- Administrative

Additional Information:

Aaron Bonar graduated from Wabash College in 2006 with a B.A. in Political Science and German Studies. He then earned his J.D./Ph.D. in Law and Democracy from the Indiana University Maurer School of Law, completing both degrees in 2017, where he worked with the Liberian government to draft proposed amendments to the Constitution of Liberia. After being admitted to the Indiana bar, Aaron served as a Marion County Deputy Prosecutor for two years and then as an Administrative Law Judge with the Office of Administrative Law Proceedings until joining the Natural Resource Commission Division of Hearings in April 2022. Aaron is a member of the Circle City Sound men's barbershop chorus in Indianapolis, Indiana and serves on the board of directors for The 88 Project, a non-profit group that investigates and advocates for political prisoners in Vietnam.