

Carrie Townsend Ingram

Indianapolis and Rockville, Indiana

- Attorney
- Administrative Law Judge, Office of Administrative Law Proceedings

Travel: Statewide and Virtual

Areas of Particular Interest:

- Labor and Employment
- Education
- Child Welfare
- Unemployment Insurance
- Administrative

Additional Information:

Carrie Ingram began her legal career with the State of Indiana in 2007 at the Department of Child Services, serving as a Staff Attorney for 3 years, an Administrative Law Judge for 5 years, and a Deputy Chief Counsel for 2 years. After leaving DCS in 2017, Ms. Ingram served as an ALJ at DWD for 2 years and IEERB for 3 years. Ms. Ingram is currently an ALJ for the Office of Administrative Law Proceedings and hears a variety of cases in the general jurisdiction division. She earned a B.A. from Indiana State University in 2003, with a major in political science and minor in women's studies, and a J.D. from Touro Law School in 2006. She studied abroad at Åbo Akademi in Finland during her undergraduate studies and at the University of Potsdam in Germany during law school.