

Kevin Wild

Indianapolis, Indiana

- Administrative Law Judge Attorney Sr., Office of Administrative Law Proceedings

Travel: Central Indiana/Virtual

Areas of Particular Interest:

- Employment
- Civil Rights
- Administrative
- Wrongful Discharge
- Sexual Harassment
- Discrimination

Additional Information:

A graduate of Wabash College and Indiana University McKinney School of Law, Kevin Wild has been a licensed attorney in good standing with the Indiana Supreme Court since 1995. He began service with State government in 1997 as a staff attorney with the Family and Social Services Administration. He has acted in an Administrative Law Judge capacity part time with FSSA since 1999 before becoming a full time ALJ with OALP in 2020. Kevin has adjudicated hundreds of administrative cases as ALJ, including termination of service provider agreements, provider audit, reimbursement rate, and overpayment determinations, individual Medicaid waiver eligibility and level of care determinations, waiver denial appeals, and others. Outside of work, Kevin is also active in his church, participates in various sports leagues, and has served as a member on various non-profit boards.