July 2007 Meeting Summary

Almost 50 participants attended the July 30, 2007 IWWG meeting at the Indiana Government Center South in Indianapolis, In. Ryan Brown from the Indiana Office of Energy & Defense Development introduced Jim Gucinski as the new moderator for the IWWG group and Cheryl Gucinski, his assistant.

Ryan Brown announced there will be a time change for future meetings, we will have some networking time from 9:30 to 10:00 am and meet from 10:00am to 1:00 pm. This will enable members who are traveling long distances to have more time to get to the meeting.

Jim Gucinski gave an overview of the four committees; Economic Development, Policy, Transmission and Siting and Education and Outreach. He introduced the co-chairs of the committees and encouraged those not currently on a committee to pick one to serve on.

Ryan Brown reported there is small grant money for schools who want to pursue the ability to use wind energy. The grant must be applied for by 9/21/07.
