5. Caiyan Xiao

Cause No.: 202411-COB-0147

Victoria Ross indicated the forty-five (45) discretionary hours she completed would have been more than the board rule allows.

Claire said that the discretionary hours are 10% of the total INDIANA hours. Since she only took one hundred (100) hours, her discretionary hours should not have exceeded ten (10) hours.

The board discussed the fact that the student would not have been aware of the school's possible violations and that even though Xiao could not tell the board what salon she obtained the forty-five (45) discretionary hours from, which legally should not have exceeded ten (10) hours in her case, they felt she was doing what she could to obtain the license. INSPECTOR CALVERT DISCUSSION REGARDING BEAUTY CULTURE SCHOOL FLOORPLANS, MICRONEEDLING AND MICRO CHANNELING

1) Inspector Calvert asked the Board if beauty culture schools need all workstations in one room or can they have workstations in multiple rooms?

Based on the rule that schools need one instructor per 20 students, schools may not separate stations in multiple rooms. Also, with the wording in the administrative rules indicating "A classroom" and "A laboratory/clinic floor", beauty culture schools cannot use multiple rooms.

2) Inspector Calvert would like staff to send the assigned inspector the floorplan for the inspection of a new beauty culture school .

3) Microneedling: It was the determination of the Board that microneedling is not the practice of beauty culture. The Board would like staff to ask the Medical board to make a determination as to whether it is a medical procedure or not.

4) Micro Channeling: (vibration therapy, no needles used) The Board determined this is not included in the practice of beauty culture.
