Appearances by Applicants for Licensure

1. Gustav Schlueter

Mr. Schlueter appeared before the Board regarding the positive response on his endorsement application. In May, 1985 Mr. Schlueter was working as a student nurse in Arkansas. He was taking narcotic medication from the Hospital he was working at and was caught. Mr. Schlueter was placed on criminal probation. Once he passed his examination, his license in Arkansas was suspended. Mr. Schlueter also held a license in Kentucky. He got a job at a hospital in Kentucky, stole narcotics and was caught. Mr. Schlueter pled guilty and was sentenced for theft of narcotics and was released on probation. In 1993 he obtained a license in Iowa. In 1994 he surrendered his license due to relapse. Mr. Schlueter has continued to work off and on since 1994 in healthcare settings without incident. After ten years of no problems or incidents he applied for reinstatement of his license in Iowa. In March, 2006 his license was reinstated without restrictions. Mr. Schlueter informed the Board that he has thirteen years of sobriety.

Ms. Slagle and Ms. Little recommended the Board approve Gustav Schlueter's license by endorsement.

2. Renae Marie Reede

Ms. Reede appeared before the Board regarding the positive response on her examination application. In fall of 1997 Ms. Reede was charged with illegal consumption of alcohol by a minor. She received one year of informal probation. In 1998 Ms. Reede delivered a magazine with fake LSD to her boyfriends friend and received $250.00 cash. She didn't realize she was being set-up by her boyfriend and the person she sold the fake LSD to was an undercover police officer. Approximately two weeks later a Sheriff came to her home and requested to speak with her. She went to the police station and gave her confession of the incident. Ms. Reede pled guilty to the official charge of dealing a look-a-like substance, a class D felony. As part of the plea bargain she completed eighteen months of supervised probation. She also had to permanently surrender her 1994 Saturn vehicle that was used during the drug deal to the police department. After completing eighteen months of supervised probation, she petitioned the court and the felony was dropped to an A misdemeanor. In 2000 Ms. Reede was caught shoplifting at a department store. She pled guilty and was sentenced to one year of informal probation.

Ms. Slagle and Ms. Little recommended Renae Marie Reede sit for the examination and be licensed once she passes.

He was sentenced to ten days in jail, had his drivers license taken away, and was ordered to attend counseling for alcohol addiction. He completed his probation and classes successfully. On June 8, 2002 Mr. Resac was charged with a felony OWI, which was later reduced to a misdemeanor. Mr. Resac lost his drivers license for one year, was sentenced to ten days in jail, ordered to take three months of alcohol addiction classes, attend AA meetings twice a week and ordered to take Antabuse for two years. Mr. Resac stated that he has been working in healthcare for almost seven years and has been sober since June, 2002.

Ms. Slagle and Ms. Little recommended Timothy Resac sit for the examination and be licensed once he passes.

4. Phillip Slinn

Mr. Slinn appeared before the Board regarding the positive response on his examination application. Mr. Slinn has had bipolar disorder since 1998 but was not properly diagnosed until the summer of 2002. On May 10, 1998 he was arrested for disorderly conduct and resisting law enforcement. He was involuntarily admitted for four days in to a mental health facility. On November 4, 1998 Mr. Slinn was stopped by a police officer for not wearing a seatbelt and was caught with a marijuana cigarette and arrested. The possession charge was dismissed upon completion of a drug and alcohol program. In the summer of 2002 Mr. Slinn experienced a manic episode and became severely delusional. On July 17, 2002 he found himself in his neighbors living room with no shirt or shoes on in the middle of the night making all kinds of noise. He was arrested for residential entry and resisting law enforcement. He immediately sought professional treatment and was diagnosed and treated for bipolar disorder.
