INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANT'S REPORT

TO: THE OFFICIALS OF THE FLOYD COUNTY SOIL AND WATER CONSERVATION DISTRICT, FLOYD COUNTY, INDIANA

We have examined the financial information presented herein of the Floyd County Soil and Water Conservation District (District), for the period of January 1, 2008 to December 31, 2010. The District's management is responsible for the financial information presented herein. Our responsibility is to express an opinion based on our examination.

Our examination was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and, accordingly, included examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the financial information presented herein and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our examination provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial information referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial information of the District for the years ended December 31, 2008, 2009 and 2010, based on the criteria set forth in the uniform compliance guidelines established by the Indiana State Board of Accounts.

FLOYD COUNTY SOIL AND WATER CONSERVATION DISTRICT
NOTES TO FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Note 1. Introduction

The District was established under the laws of the State of Indiana. The District provides soil and water conservation services.

Note 2. Fund Accounting

The District uses funds to report on its cash and investments and the results of its operations on a cash basis. Fund accounting is designed to demonstrate legal compliance and to aid financial management by segregating transactions related to certain governmental functions or activities.

Note 3. Budgets

The District operates under a conservation plan which is updated annually by the Board of Supervisors of the District. Floyd County provides personnel services, supplies, and other types of disbursements within its budget for the general benefit of the District. As such, the county assistance provided for the benefit of the District is not considered monies of the District.

Note 4. Deposits and Investments

Deposits, made in accordance with Indiana Code 5-13, with financial institutions in the State of Indiana at year end were entirely insured by the Federal Depository Insurance Corporation or by the Indiana Public Deposit Insurance Fund. This includes any deposit accounts issued or offered by a qualifying financial institution.

State statute (IC 5-13-9) authorizes the District to invest in securities including, but not limited to, federal government securities, repurchase agreements, and certain money market mutual funds. Certain other statutory restrictions apply to all investments made by local governmental units.
