INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Social Health Association of Indiana, Inc.
Indianapolis, Indiana

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Social Health Association of Indiana, Inc. (LifeSmart Youth), which comprise the statement of financial position as of September 30, 2018, and the statements of activities and changes in net assets, functional expenses and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to LifeSmart Youth's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of LifeSmart Youth's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of LifeSmart Youth as of September 30, 2018, and the results of its statements of activities and changes in net assets, functional expenses, and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Prior Year Audited Financial Statements

The financial statements of LifeSmart Youth, Inc. as of and for the year ended September 30, 2017 were audited by other auditors whose report, dated February 12, 2018, expressed an unmodified opinion on those statements.

Report on Supplemental Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The accompanying schedule of expenditures of federal awards, as required by Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards, is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Report Issued in Accordance with Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated November 12, 2018, on our consideration of LifeSmart Youth's internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of LifeSmart Youth's internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering LifeSmart Youth's internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

Social Health Association of Indiana, Inc. d/b/a LifeSmart Youth

Notes to Financial Statements For the Years Ended September 30, 2018 and 2017

Note 1 – Nature of Activities

Background

Social Health Association of Indiana, Inc. (LifeSmart Youth) was incorporated and commenced operations as a non-profit organization in 1943 under the laws of the State of Indiana.

LifeSmart Youth is a statewide 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. For over 75 years, our mission has been to empower youth to make responsible choices and adopt healthy behaviors. We envision a community where all young people have the inner resources they need to meet life's challenges. By being mindful of the adverse impacts of trauma on the youth we serve, we are sensitive to their needs and help them learn skills to overcome these challenges. By building their social-emotional skills, LifeSmart Youth guides youth to lead healthy and safe lives.

LifeSmart Youth partners with Indiana schools and community-based organizations to provide health education and whole-life skills programs to equip youth with critical social-emotional skills. Currently, we serve Indiana youth grades K-8 who represent some of Indiana's most vulnerable youth based on their geographic location, socio-economic level, and other health risk factors. Through partnerships in ten (10) counties, LifeSmart Youth serves 19 school districts, 100 schools, and 15 summer camps. In addition, we provide resources for trusted adults to support youth. Since, 1943 we have served over 1.8 million Indiana youth with vital school-based education programs.

Children are not born with resilience, empathy, sound judgement, and good communication skills. These traits and behaviors must be modeled by caregivers, educators, and trusted adults in their lives. Youth who acquire these whole-life skills and wellness behaviors from an early age are better equipped to thrive and succeed in life. LifeSmart Youth's programs satisfy 177 Indiana Academic Standards of the Indiana Department of Education. Programs are evaluated by Indiana University School of Medicine, Indiana State Department of Health – Maternal and Child Services, and other third-party experts to measure effectiveness, medical accuracy, and enable continual improvement for optimal impact.

As Indiana schools' health educator-of-choice, LifeSmart Youth, teaches youth tools and skills to confidently make safe, health-informed decisions for life.

Programs

LifeSmart Youth's major programs consists of the following:

- Reproductive Health Programs - Reproductive health encompasses physical, mental, and social well-being, not merely the absence of disease, and includes all matters relating to the reproductive system and to its functions and system at all stages of life. LifeSmart Youth's reproductive health programming offers youth in 4th – 7th grades, age-appropriate, medically accurate information to teach youth how to care for their growing bodies and skills to make healthy choices related to their reproductive health. Thus, youth gain necessary knowledge and confidence to empower them to make healthy choices throughout puberty and beyond, reducing their risk of teen pregnancy and sexually transmitted diseases (STDs). Through these programs, LifeSmart Youth is a leader in turning the curve on teen pregnancy and sexual risk behavior rates by empowering youth to lead healthy and safe lives.

- Healthy Relationship Programs - Positive social connections with people at all stages of life help ensure healthy development – physically, socially, and emotionally. Through positive peer and teen dating relationship education, adolescents learn to cooperate with others, communicate effectively, resolve conflicts, and resist negative peer pressure. Healthy relationship development for youth enables them to grow into healthy adults in families, the workplace, and communities.

LifeSmart Youth’s healthy relationships skills programming encompasses bullying and peer violence prevention, and healthy teen dating relationship skills. Youth acquire essential interpersonal skills, including verbal and nonverbal communication, which are important in the high-tech digital age. Youth also learn empathy, compassion, and skills to address bullying. These skills are important building blocks to equip youth to make healthy choices and support health and safety by establishing healthy peer relationships and reducing substance use, suicidality, dating violence, and bullying.

- Adult Programs Benefiting Youth - Although peers play a key role in adolescent relationship development, so do trusted adults such as parents, coaches, mentors, teachers, neighbors, and relatives. Trusted adults are people youth feel connected to and trust. These adult relationships are key to providing youth with protective factors against adverse childhood experiences (ACEs) and developing resiliency in youth. Adults can also teach healthy practices for youth that peers cannot, such as quality sleep time, limited screen time, nutritional foods, cyber safety, and life-long goal setting. Trusted adults are key to positive youth development.

LifeSmart Youth’s adult programming helps adults build knowledge and skills in sensitive topics such as reproductive health for youth, communication, and teen dating relationships. LifeSmart Youth’s programming for trusted adults is provided through on-line resources and workshops in workplaces and the community.

Note 2 – Significant Accounting Policies

Accounting Method

LifeSmart Youth’s financial statements were prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, and other changes during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Subsequent Events

LifeSmart Youth evaluated subsequent events through November 12, 2018, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued. This evaluation determined that there are no subsequent events that necessitated further disclosure in and/or adjustments to the accompanying financial statements.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purpose of the statements of cash flows, LifeSmart Youth considers all highly liquid instruments with a maturity of three months or less to be considered cash and cash equivalents. The carrying amount of cash approximates fair value due to the type of investments and the maturity dates. There are no cash equivalents.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are stated at the amount LifeSmart Youth's management expects to collect from outstanding balances. Management provides for probable uncollectable amounts through a provision for bad debt expense and an adjustment to a valuation allowance based on its assessment of the current status of individual accounts. The allowance for doubtful accounts at September 30, 2018 and 2017 was $0 due to subsequent collection on account receivables.

Grants Receivable

Grants receivable are stated at the amount LifeSmart Youth's management expects to collect from governmental agencies as part of the grant agreements. LifeSmart Youth has cost reimbursable agreements in which governmental agencies remit payments roughly thirty to forty-five days after the reimbursement claim was submitted. The allowance for doubtful accounts at September 30, 2018 and 2017 was $0 due to LifeSmart Youth's prior history with governmental agencies' payments.

Fixed Assets

LifeSmart Youth's fixed assets are stated at cost and depreciated over estimated useful lives of three to seven years using the straight-line method. LifeSmart Youth capitalizes items over $2,500 that have a useful life of one year or more. Expenditures for additions are capitalized. When office equipment is sold, retired, or otherwise disposed of, the related cost, and accumulated depreciation are eliminated from the accounts and any resulting gain or loss is credited or charged to income.

Net Assets

The financial statements were prepared in accordance with Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Organizations that require, among other things, that the financial statements report the changes in and total of each of the net asset classes, based upon donor restrictions, as applicable. Net assets are to be classified as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, and permanently restricted.

The following class of net assets and a brief description is as follows:

Unrestricted Net Assets: The unrestricted net asset includes general assets and liabilities of LifeSmart Youth. The unrestricted net assets may be used at the direction of management to support LifeSmart Youth's purposes and operations.

Temporarily Restricted Net Assets: A donor-imposed restriction permits LifeSmart Youth to use up or expend the donated assets as specified and is satisfied either by the passage of time or by actions of LifeSmart Youth. When a restriction expires, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and are reported in the statements of activities as net assets released from restrictions. There were no temporarily restricted net assets at September 30, 2018 and 2017.

Permanently Restricted Net Assets: A donor-imposed restriction stipulates that resources be maintained permanently, but permits LifeSmart Youth to use up or expend part or all of the income (or other economic benefits) derived from the donated assets.

United Way of Central Indiana

A significant source of revenue is the allocation from the United Way of Central Indiana (UWCI). LifeSmart Youth receives an annual funding agreement and donor-designated funds with UWCI. Agreements are from July 1st to June 30th each year with two payments per month. LifeSmart Youth records the revenue when received.

Social Health Association of Indiana, Inc. d/b/a LifeSmart Youth

Grants Revenue

LifeSmart Youth receives grants from the State of Indiana (oversight agencies) to carry out certain program activities. These grants are received under oversight agency contracts that require LifeSmart Youth to submit records of service provided to eligible individuals and organizations on a periodic basis. LifeSmart Youth records grant revenue as earned as the eligible expenses are incurred and contracted services performed. Grant expenditures are subject to audit and acceptance by the oversight agencies and, as a result of such audits, adjustments could be required.

Contributions

LifeSmart Youth accounts for contributions received and contributions made in accordance with professional standards. Contributions received are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. Contributions are recorded when the unconditional promise to give is made. LifeSmart Youth reports gifts of cash and other assets as restricted support if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets.

Expense Allocation

The costs of providing various programs and other activities were summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities and changes in net assets and statement of functional expenses. Accordingly, certain costs were allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited.

Advertising Expense

LifeSmart Youth expensed advertising costs as incurred. During the years ended September 30, 2018 and 2017, advertising costs were $40,803 and $3,037, respectively.

In-kind Contributions

LifeSmart Youth receives in-kind contributions of personnel, technology, and use of classroom and office space from various donors for its school programs. It is the policy of LifeSmart Youth to record in-kind contributions at estimated fair market value and recognize revenue in the accounting period when they are received. Contributions of donated services that 1) create or enhance nonfinancial assets or that require specialized skills, 2) are provided by individuals possessing those skills, and 3) would typically need to be purchased if not provided by donation, are recorded at their fair market values in the period received. LifeSmart Youth's policy is to record the estimated fair value of certain in-kind donations as an expense in its financial statements, and similarly increase revenue and other support by a like amount.

Income Taxes

LifeSmart Youth is exempt from federal and state income tax under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code; therefore, no provision for income taxes was made in the financial statements. LifeSmart Youth is classified as an entity that is not a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) and qualifies for deductible contributions as provided in Section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi).

Generally accepted accounting principles in the United States require LifeSmart Youth to examine its tax positions for uncertain positions. LifeSmart Youth is not aware of any tax positions that are more likely than not to change in the next twelve months, or that would not sustain an examination by applicable taxing authorities. LifeSmart Youth's policy is to recognize penalties and interest as incurred in its statement of activities as a component of operating expenses, and totaled $0 for September 30, 2018 and 2017.

LifeSmart Youth's federal and state income tax returns for years ended 2015 thru 2017 are subject to examination by the applicable tax authorities, generally for three years after the later of the original or extended due date.

Independent Auditor's Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting and on Compliance and Other Matters Based on an Audit of Financial Statements Performed In Accordance with Governmental Auditing Standards

To the Board of Directors
Social Health Association of Indiana, Inc.
Indianapolis, Indiana

We have audited, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the financial statements of Social Health Association of Indiana, Inc. (LifeSmart Youth), which comprise the financial position as of September 30, 2018, and the related statements of activities, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements, and have issued our report thereon dated November 12, 2018.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements, we considered LifeSmart Youth's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) to determine the audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of LifeSmart Youth's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of LifeSmart Youth's internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of LifeSmart Youth's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether LifeSmart Youth's financial statements are free of material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit and, accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of LifeSmart Youth's internal control or on compliance. This report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering LifeSmart Youth's internal control and compliance. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.

Independent Auditor's Report on Compliance For Each Major Program and Report on Internal Control Over Compliance Required by The Uniform Guidance

To the Board of Directors
Social Health Association of Indiana, Inc.
Indianapolis, Indiana

Report on Compliance for Each Major Federal Program

We have audited Social Health Association of Indiana, Inc. (LifeSmart Youth)'s compliance with the types of compliance requirements described in the OMB Compliance Supplement that could have a direct and material effect on each of LifeSmart Youth's major federal programs for the year ended September 30, 2018. LifeSmart Youth's major federal programs are identified in the summary of auditor's results section of the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs.

Management's Responsibility

Management is responsible for compliance with the federal statutes, regulations, and the terms and conditions of its federal awards applicable to LifeSmart Youth's federal programs.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on compliance for each of LifeSmart Youth's major federal programs based on our audit of the types of compliance requirements referred to above. We conducted our audit of compliance in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America; the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States; and the audit requirements of Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards (Uniform Guidance). Those standards and the Uniform Guidance require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether noncompliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on a major federal program occurred. An audit includes examining evidence on a test basis about LifeSmart Youth's compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion on compliance for each major federal program. However, our audit does not provide a legal determination of LifeSmart Youth's compliance.

Opinion on Each Major Federal Program

In our opinion, LifeSmart Youth complied, in all material respects, with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on each of its major Federal programs for the year ended September 30, 2018.

Report on Internal Control over Compliance

Management of LifeSmart Youth is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal control over compliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above. In planning and performing our audit of compliance, we considered LifeSmart Youth's internal control over compliance with the types of requirements that could have a direct and material effect on each major federal program to determine the auditing procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing an opinion on compliance for each major federal program and to test and report on internal control over compliance in accordance with the Uniform Guidance, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control over compliance. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of LifeSmart Youth's internal control over compliance.

A deficiency in internal control over compliance exists when the design or operation of a control over compliance does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program on a timely basis. A material weakness in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance, such that there is a reasonable possibility that material noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A significant deficiency in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program that is less severe than a material weakness in internal control over compliance, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control over compliance was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over compliance that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over compliance that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over compliance that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report on internal control over compliance is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over compliance and the results of that testing based on the requirements of the Uniform Guidance. Accordingly, this report is not suitable for any other purpose.
