What is a Government Record?

"Any writing, paper, report, study, map, photograph, card, tape recording, or other material that is created, received, retained, maintained, used or filed by a public agency and which is generated on paper, paper substitutes, photographic media, chemically based media, electronically stored data, or any other material, regardless of form or characteristics."

What is Records Retention?

- How is the length of retention determined?
  - Generally, Records Management staff work with an agency to identify:
    - The Administrative and Fiscal value
    - Legal value
    - Public Demand and Interest, and
    - Historical value of the information
  - Paper, Film, Electronic, Stone Tablets
    - Retention is based upon content – NOT storage media

The local retention schedules are available via: schedules.iara.IN.gov
This Retention Schedule is divided into five (5) categories:
1. Administrative
2. Accounting and Finance
3. Personnel
4. Publications and Reports
5. Audio, Video and General Media

Retention periods for some records are increased in length of time to be retained because current Indiana Code statute of limitations have been applied to all records on this schedule.

Deathuction of Records
- It may be illegal to destroy government records if you do not have an approved records retention schedule or permission from your county commission of public records.

Indiana Law:
A public official may not mutilate, destroy, sell, loan, or otherwise dispose of any government record, except under a retention schedule or with the written consent of the commission (on public records). IC 5-15-5.1-14

Retention Periods...
- Transitory: can be destroyed immediately.
- Short-term: generally ten years or fewer.
- Long-term: greater than ten years and not permanent.
- Permanent: A long, long time; like forever.

Permanent Records
- In many jurisdictions, you can only destroy permanent paper records if you MICROFILM the original paper records.
- If you digitize Permanent records, or they are submitted electronically, they may also be REQUIRED to be converted to microfilm. Indiana’s Micrographics & Imaging Lab can assist! (iara.In.gov/2341.htm)
- Digital records are generally NOT recognized as Permanent format to preserve information.

Electronic Records & Preservation
- Challenges of Digital Technology
  - Fragile media
  - Technology dependence
  - Technology obsolescence
  - Distributed storage
  - Where is the record copy?
  - Chain of custody
- Easy to copy, hard to preserve
- Explosive growth
IARA is establishing guidelines for State and local governments to aid in the implementation of effective electronic records management programs. The Indiana Electronic Records Policy provides a framework that illustrates the contents of an effective program by seeking to ensure that governmental units create and manage trustworthy records that demonstrate four core attributes.

Indiana Electronic Records Program

- Authenticity – An authentic record is one that can be proven:
  - To be what it purports to be;
  - To have been created or sent by the person purported to have created or sent it; and
  - To have been created or sent at the time purported.

- Integrity – Refers to the record being complete and unaltered.

- Reliability – A reliable record is one whose contents can be trusted as a full and accurate representation of the transactions, activities or facts to which they attest and can be depended upon in the course of subsequent transactions or activities.

- Useability – A useable record is one that can be located, retrieved, presented and interpreted.

State Historic Records Advisory Board (SHRAB) Grants

- The 2016 Hoosier History Assessment and Digitization Grant application period will open August 1 and close on August 19.
- A max of $5,000 will be provided to each grantee as reimbursement for an archival assessment or digitization project.
- Grantees will be announced by September 16.
- Visit SHRAB.IN.gov for updates.

Records Projects

- IARA is working with the Supreme Court, Ancestry.com and Family Search to convert existing Probate Record Microfilm created by Family Search (formerly the Genealogical Society of Utah) into digital images.
- Ancestry.com Birth, Death and Marriage Project has begun digitizing the State Department of Health’s vital records. The materials became available online in June of 2016.

State-Sponsored Workshops

- IARA and the SHRAB offer a series of records management workshops in Indiana. In the past, these workshops have focused on:
  - Preservation of records
  - Archival Basics
  - Electronic Records
  - Government records

IARA Initiatives

- IARA has purchased and is implementing new software to provide access to the collections of the Archives, to allow citizens to identify the holdings in the Archives collections. The site should be available in the Third Quarter of 2016.
