She works as an Absentee Vote Counter and due to the increased number of absentee votes during the primary she works more hours than usual. Her pay for the Primary is $950. Because Susie earns more than $600, she needs a W-2 for her election earnings.
Reporting Requirements – Example 3

• Joe County works for the County Health Department. The Courthouse is closed for the Primary and he decides to help out and works as a Poll Inspector. He has earned $300 for the election work. His election earnings are below $600 but you have to consider his compensation from the County for his regular job and when added to his election earnings his total compensation from the County exceeds $600 for the year.
