RE: Annual Conference
DATE: July 6, 2026

In accordance with Indiana Code 5-11-14-1, the Indiana State Board of Accounts is calling a conference of County Treasurers to be held Wednesday and Thursday August 5 and 6, 2026, at the following location:

Sheraton Hotel at Keystone Crossing
8787 Keystone Crossing
Indianapolis, IN 46240

The conference will start promptly at 9:00 A.M. (EST) on Wednesday and Thursday.

Per Indiana Code 5-11-14-1(f), each County Treasurer may require the attendance of their appointed and acting chief deputies or chief assistants, and:

- If the number of deputies or assistants employed does not exceed three (3), one (1) of their appointed and acting deputies or assistants.
- If the number of deputies or assistants employed exceeds three (3), two (2) of the elected officials duly appointed and acting deputies or assistants.

Each County Treasurer and each authorized deputy or assistant shall be entitled to reimbursement for lodging expense under IC 5-11-14-1 for the conference, in an amount equal to the single room rate.

Mileage at a rate per mile determined by the county fiscal body from the county seat to the meeting place and return will be certified for payment to the County Treasurer, deputy, or assistant furnishing the conveyance. Each official shall be reimbursed, in an amount determined by the fiscal body of the county, for meals purchased while attending a conference. Receipts for meals should be maintained in order to receive reimbursement.

The Indiana State Board of Accounts will keep attendance of elected officials at each conference called by the State Examiner and publish the attendance on the Indiana State Board of Accounts' website. Elected officials must attend the applicable annual conference called by the State Examiner a minimum of once every two (2) years.

Respectfully,

Paul D. Joyce
