

INDIANA STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

2019-2020 A-F Accountability Appeal Procedures

1. General A-F Appeal Information

- a. Preliminary, embargoed 2019-20 A-F letter grades are currently available at <https://accountability.doe.in.gov>.
- b. Per 511 IAC 6.2-10-11, a school or corporation may appeal its accountability category placement based on relevant objective factors that demonstrate annual assessment data do not accurately reflect the school's performance. Objective factors include errors in data, significant demographic changes in the student population, or other significant issues including, but not limited to, errors in the application of 511 IAC 6.2-10.
- c. Pursuant to a Memorandum of Understanding, requests for an appeal of a school's preliminary A-F letter grade will either be forwarded to the Office of Administrative Law Proceedings to be addressed by an administrative law judge, or be addressed by State Board staff acting as an administrative law judge.
- d. Appeal requests may be submitted through the online portal at <https://accountability.doe.in.gov> beginning September 8, 2020.
- e. All requests and supporting documentation must be submitted to the online portal and received by the Indiana Department of Education ("IDOE") not later than 11:59 pm EST on September 22, 2020.
- f. Schools that submit an appeal under these guidelines that is received prior to 11:59 pm EST on September 22, 2020, will continue to have their preliminary A-F letter grade embargoed until a proposed determination is issued by an administrative law judge and the Indiana State Board of Education ("Board") takes official action regarding the administrative law judge's determination.
- g. After the Board officially places schools in A-F letter grade categories for the 2019-20 school year, schools will have another opportunity to submit an appeal based on a school's assertion that its annual assessment data does not accurately reflect the school's performance, or other significant issues. Such appeals must be submitted through the online portal at <https://accountability.doe.in.gov>, and be received not later than 11:59 pm EDT on October 30, 2020. Schools that submit a request after the Board officially places schools in A-F letter grade categories for the 2019-20 school year will not have their A-F letter grade embargoed while the appeal is considered.
- h. Schools may only appeal issues regarding the State accountability system; appeals will not be considered for the Federal accountability system.

2. Submission Requirements

- a. Schools must submit an appeal request via IDOE Online Portal: <https://accountability.doe.in.gov>. Only requests submitted via the IDOE Online Portal by the stated deadlines will be considered.
- b. Any appeals received by post, email or fax will not be accepted.
- c. Only one request for review may be submitted per school.
- d. An appeal request must include a statement of why the school is appealing its letter grade and may include supporting documentation the school deems relevant to its appeal request.
- e. Each piece of supporting documentation that relates to a specific student must be clearly labeled with the student's STN and first/last name to be considered.
- f. Schools will be contacted if there are one or more issues identified during the submission process.

4. Appeal Review Process

- a. Unless otherwise requested by the school/corporation, the administrative law judge will conduct a document review, which will consist solely of a review of all documentation submitted by the school.
- b. If a school wishes to appear before the administrative law judge and present evidence in support of the school’s review of its preliminary A-F letter grade based on other significant issues, the school must request an in-person hearing at the time the school request the review. Additionally, the administrative law judge may determine that an in-person hearing is necessary regardless of whether the school submits such a request to the administrative law judge.
- c. The administrative law judge will issue all notices regarding the manner in which the proceedings will be conducted.
- d. Except as otherwise described herein, reviews will be conducted under the rules of the Administrative Orders and Procedures Act (IC 4-21.5).
- e. Upon receipt of the administrative law judge’s proposed findings, a school/corporation may file an objection no later than ten (10) calendar days from the date the school receives the proposed determination.
- f. An objection must be submitted in writing and must state the legal and/or factual basis for the objection.
- g. The objection must be submitted to the Indiana State Board of Education at the following email address: Applications@sboe.in.gov.
- h. The proposed determinations of the administrative law judge and the submitted objection, if any, will be brought before the Board for final determination.
