This is the home of action. Within the grasp of each student here lies a wealth of knowledge and opportunity. It is his to unfold. The possibilities are limitless to anyone who will make use of his advantages, and the action within these walls insures the continuation of this process of self-improvement.

This is our fifth year as one consolidated school, and we are progressing forward with increasing tempo. The time has passed so rapidly, yet so much has been accomplished.

We have molded one distinct school from four. We have widened the scope of our world. The wheels have been set into motion, and even now we continue forward.

We look ahead to unfinished tasks not with apprehension, but with confidence in the force that solidifies and directs our action. The shape of our action shall determine what is to come. It has made the past successful, and will continue to strengthen the foundation for the future.

MRS. HELEN GRICE

Born in East Liverpool, Ohio, Mrs. Helen Grice has been teaching for twenty-six years. She has taught in a mission school in the Tennessee foothills, has served as a governess of thirty children in Ohio, and for five years was a County Attendance Officer. Her husband, Mr. Henry Grice, is presently Superintendent of Schools in Edgar County, Ohio. They have one son and three grandchildren.

MISS McDANIEL

Beginning as an elementary teacher in a one room school house in Martinsville, Miss Doris McDaniel has been teaching Latin, English, and social studies for forty-six years. She has traveled into each of the fifty United States at least five times, and has visited twenty-four foreign nations in five continents. Enjoying travel by plane, she plans to continue adding to her vast travel experience.

MR. RUSSELL BRYAN

Mr. Russell J. Bryan has taught agriculture, shop, and social studies for forty-two years, twenty-five of which have been spent at Mulberry and Clinton Prairie. Most students know him as a government teacher, though he has sponsored several class trips to Washington D.C. and New York while at Mulberry. Mr. Bryan's avocation is farming, and he has received a B.S. in agriculture from Purdue University.

"All right, Mr. Whaley, how does colored light effect growing plants?" Clinton Prairie's first Science Fair raised many such questions, and earnest exhibitors sought to answer them.

Pulling herself together takes a little outside assistance from Dad before the half time show at Indiana Central College. The Marching Gophers performed as the guest high school band, and Connie was anxious to look her best.

"Now, Mr. Alward, you wouldn't tell Mr. Egli if I took just one more, would you?" The kitchen is a favorite haunt of Prairie's faculty.

Lending a hand, Mrs. Sims shows Mrs. Hurt and Mrs. Long how to run the machine.

Between classes, hall lockers are our meeting grounds for chats, planning, and serious discussion.

Square dancing was introduced to the mixed physical education classes this year. Here, Mrs. Boser explains the footwork.

Academics and Activities

The shape of action is the formation of a single wing on the gridiron, the silhouette of dancers at the prom, the strut of a band on the march, the leap of a basketball player for a lay-up, the shadow of a student bent over homework.

Action is also within each student's mind, and here it has no shape. It is the curiosity aroused by a Science Fair, the concentration applied in music practice, the determination set toward a cross-country run, the anticipation felt during a close game.

In the end, the shape of action is the shape of our student body and faculty as we work together throughout the school year.

1965—Clinton Prairie's First Homecoming

It's a small world for Latin-Spanish Clubs.

Alladin can't hold a candle to this.

Band supplies big beat to drum out Trojans.

Junior's float snared second place.

Double, bubble, toil and trouble-- ingredients for Science Club float
(1st place trophy).

At the homecoming halftime the band put its heart into the performance.

VALEDICTORIAN

Valedictorian Greg Biesecker will enroll in Purdue University in the fall of 1966. Finding interest in the sciences, he plans to study either chemical or aeronautical engineering.

Greg enjoys swimming, football, and music, as first cornetist in stage band. He also finds personal satisfaction in reading and playing the folk guitar.

SALUTATORIAN

Steven Weflen, salutatorian of the class of 1966 is Michigan bound, planning to attend General Motors Institute at Flint to study mechanical engineering.

Sports fill Steve's out of school time. He is engaged in football, wrestling, and track, and when the swimming season leaves, he trades trunks for ice-skates.

The halls of ivy will soon be a thing of the past. The Senior Class of 1966 will graduate, disperse, and assume their various worlds. And there will be other senior classes.

But for us, the graduating, the Senior Class of 1966 will envelop the major share of our memories of Clinton Prairie, from homecoming to the Prom. We are leaving one world and entering another. We anticipate the new, but we shall not forget the old.

We owe Clinton Prairie a vote of thanks. Thank you for the world you have opened to us. We leave you, but we take with us that which you have taught us.
